Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GRO.

Mildred Holland's success of last season, "The Triumph of an Empress," did so well that she will take the play out again this season. The booking for it is even better than that of last year, and this clever actress may well be proud of the place she is making for herself in the theatrical world.

Many prominent actresses have been making collections of stage jewels that are reproductions of those owned and worn by the nobility, but it remains for Miss Holland to surpass these by the magnificent "crown veloped the fact that most of the world's great women were small in stature—Cleopatra, Helen of Troy, Charlotte Corday, Joan D'Arc and many others were beneath the average height recorded of women, therefore her anxiety concerning the required stature for her new star part was of short duration.

The recent advent of a son in the royal household of Russia, where there were small daughters galore, much to the sorrow of the

The small girl, with swollen cheeks and tear wet eyes, came into Miss Holland's room and lay the little face on the arm of the actress, and, with a sob of pain, said: "Oh, Auntie, you don't know how my tooth hurts!"

"Nonsense!" said her aunt, "such tiny teeth as yours are not big enough to ache—you're only imagining the pain." Proceeding to explain some of the tenets of the religion, she soon talked the child almost, but century, which is a recent acquisition of the museum, and is said to have cost $180,000. Another group of visitors stood near, and one young girl remarked:

"I don't see where the money is in that old tarnished thing! I wonder what they're keeping it for anyway."

"Because it's famous," replied another, who had probably seen Klaw & Erlanger's big production. "Why, don't you know, that is the chariot that 'Ben Hur' won his big race with?"

Ray Comstock, manager of "The Run-aways," is still telling his Broadway friends about some of his experiences when he joined the company on its Southern tour last Spring. Here are a couple of his most treasured anecdotes:

In an Alabama town he fell in with two traveling men who had been covering considerable territory by wagon. They had been jewels" which she wears as Catherine the Great in her production. They are the exact replica of the Russian crown jewels of the time of that powerful empress, and Miss Holland is to be congratulated upon the opportunity afforded her to procure them.

For three months last year Miss Holland was traveling in Russia in search of "local color" for her play, and while there was fortunate enough to meet, through some friends, a prince, whose influence procured her the privilege of viewing the jewels, which play a part in her production. She was permitted to sketch designs from them, and Beck, the famous Parisian jeweler, reproduced the beautiful collection at a far greater cost than is usually applied to this portion of a stage wardrobe.

When it became known last season that Miss Holland was to play the role of Catherine the Great, in "The Triumph of an Empress," a certain manager was heard to remark that he considered Miss Holland's height—which is something more than five feet—to be far less than that which one should possess in order to impersonate such a historical personage as Catherine. The actress, who was deeply interested in her new role, heard of the remark, and set about to justify herself in assuming the role of one supposed to be a woman of more than ordinary stature. To her great satisfaction she found that Catherine, according to historical accounts, was a small woman of only a little more than five feet in height. Furthermore, Miss Holland's researches on the subject de-

Czar, Czarina, and the whole nation, elicited the remark from Miss Holland that perhaps now the Czarina would wear a happier expression, for though while in Russia she had had a view of that great lady four times, she saw each time only the deepest sorrow depicted in her face.

Miss Holland is interested in Christian Science, which so many of the profession have taken up during the past few years. Her latest convert is her small niece, who believes implicitly every word her fond aunt utters. The child's faith was severely tried not long ago, even though she felt the pain she denied, according to the Christian Science belief.

not quite, out of her belief in the tooth ache.

A few minutes later the mother of the little one came into the room, and seeing signs of recent tears on her face, asked:

"What's the matter, dearie?"

"Oh," said the child, fresh from instruction in the belief of her beloved aunt, "I thought I had the tooth ache, but Aunt Mildred says I haven't."

That plays direct the mind of the public was illustrated in the hearing of Miss Holland the other day while she was escorting some out of town friends through the Metropolitan Museum.

They had just been examining, through its plate glass case, a Roman chariot of the first compelled to stop wherever night found them, and at one farmhouse were received by the owner in true Southern hospitable style.

At table the host arose and allowed his glance to rove solemnly from the faces of his twelve children of various sizes to the expectant countenances of his two guests.

"Gentlemen," he said in sepulchral tones, "it has been our custom to beg the family assist in sayin' grace. Each of my children sez a verse from the Scriptures, an' I shall expect you to do the same."

Long before the middle sized child had been reached in the course of that composite blessing, the two drummers were perspiring freely in the effort to recall even a line from the Bible. At last the fatal moment arrived, and the first traveler, in response to the host's gesture that meant his turn, burst forth in strident tones:

"Jesus wept."

Involuntarily the other drummer groaned aloud, for this was the one verse that had also come to his memory. Casting upon his companion an agonized glance, he muttered under his breath:

"Sure, he did."

At another town Mr. Comstock fell in with a young chap who was bound for the North. Naturally, they fell into conversation, during the course of which Comstock discovered that his new acquaintance hailed from New York.

"And what have you been doing down here?" asked the manager.

"Oh, I've been working with the construction gang at the coke ovens over yonder. My uncle has an interest in them."

"Sore on the job?" questioned Comstock.

"Th-huh!" grunted the lad in a noncommittal manner.

"Grub about here rather tough?" queried Comstock.

"Mebby 'tain't the worst ever," said the New York boy somewhat slyly. "I could have stood for the taters floating in grease, and the flatiron biscuits, but I can't stand anybody bossing the way I conduct my toilet in the morning."

"Didn't they like your clothes down here?" inquired Comstock, getting interested.

"It wasn't the clothes, but they didn't seem to have any use down here for a fellow that brushes his teeth. The man I roomed with kicked because my tooth powder got on to the bottom of the wash basin. He said I'd either got to stop cleaning my teeth or 'git.' I'm now 'gitting' back to God's country."

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Clipper Bureau,
48 Cranbourne Street,
Leicester Square,
London, W. C.

A few weeks ago I gave an extract from an article in The Stage on the great exodus of English players this season to America, and now The Daily Chronicle gives the details of Charles Frohman's widespread plans: "Playgoers will express surprise when they learn that nearly all the leading English actors have been engaged by Charles Frohman to visit America during the next few months, and that Mr. Frohman intends importing various 'stars' from the United States to take their places temporarily. Mr. Frohman has become the most prominent theatrical manager in the world. He is a keen lover of the drama and a shrewd man of business. He believes in paying good salaries to good players. Regarding his business with playgoers, he informed a Daily Chronicle representative before leaving England that he has secured unnamed comedies by A. W. Pinero, Robert Marshall, H. A. Jones, J. M. Barrie, Haddon Chambers, Augustus Thomas, Clyde Fitch, Henry G. Clarendon, William Gillette, Paul Port and H. V. Esmond. When Mr. Pinero's new play has been produced at Wyndham's, and has run its course, Mr. Frohman will bring over William Collier to play at this house in Richard Harding Davis' piece, 'The Dictator,' and in Augustus Thomas' farce, 'On the Quiet.' He also intends that Maude Adams shall make her long deferred appearance in London in a new play, probably by Mr. Zangwill. Early next month he will reopen the Duke of York's with Mr. Zangwill's play, 'Merely Mary Ann,' in which Eleanor Robson will have the principal role. Miss Robson is due in London on Thursday. Mr. Frohman has also bought a dramatization of Rudyard Kipling's 'The Gadsbys,' and a novel by Cosmo Gordon Lennox, entitled 'The Indiscretion of Mr. Kingsley.' The English 'stars' going to America include Charles Wyndham and Mary Moore, who will leave London in October, and remain in the United States for three months; Mrs. Patrick Campbell, who will appear in an English version of Sardou's 'I. Sorciere,' and will play in America for twenty-eight weeks; H. B. Irving and Irene Vanbrugh, Seymour Hicks and Ellaline Terriss, Ellen Terry, who will be seen in J. M. Barrie's new comedy, 'Marie Topper,' and John Hare. Mr. Frohman has arranged for Henry Irving to make his farewell appearance in America under his management, and he has further agreed with George Edwards for a tour in the United States of the company now playing 'Veronique' at the Apollo. Mr. Frohman also informed a Daily Chronicle representative that the theatre to be built for him in Shaftesbury Avenue will be the finest in London, and that, with the Empire Theatre, in New York, it will give him two leading theatres for original dramatic productions in England and America."

It has fallen to the lot of the inventive dramatist to discover a virtue in radium hitherto unknown to science. At least so it would appear from the plot of the new play, 'Fiddle-Dee-Dee,' produced at the Grand Theatre, Fulham, last Monday night. The villain of this curious piece is checked in his career of crime by the production of a phial containing the mysterious element. As it is the fashion in modern drama to have two villains in a piece, the second offender meets with a similar fate at the hands of the avenger. The author has a certain eye for dramatic effect, born apparently of the stage, but his play suffers from an excess of incidents which confuse the main issue. He starts with a good idea in depicting a young artist struggling with adversity, and ultimately falling into the hands of a rascally money lender. His rescue is effected by a guardian angel, who assumes masculine garb, and confounds her enemies by the liberal use of radium flashes. It is all very interesting in its way, but by no means convincing. The play was well cast, Daisy Scudamore being remarkably good in the role of the avenger, and Frank Harding giving a very finished performance as the money lender.

James Welch and the principal members of his South African company arrived in London on Friday last. On Thursday week Mr. Welch will commence at the Opera House, Buxton, a tour of the leading provincial towns, in 'The New Clown.'

W. L. Courtney is adapting for Olga Netherole 'Le Pedale,' a strong but decidedly unpleasant play by Paul Hervieu, produced at the Theatre Francaise last December. The peddle, or name, of the plot is that constructed for herself by a wife, who, having for good and sufficient reasons divorced her husband and married again, meets that husband at the bedside of their sick child, and then is promptly persuaded by him to resume his place as his successor. Although the heroine is supposed to be a good woman, and though she suffers poetic justice for her matrimonial indiscretion in the melodramatic loss of both her husbands, the adapter will, I imagine, find some difficulty in gaining for her the approval of British censorship.

Henry Irving wishes it to be known that there is no foundation whatever for the report that he intends to visit South Africa. He will only play in Great Britain, Ireland and the United States prior to his retirement in 1906.

'Bellamy, the Magnificent,' is the title of a four act comedy recently acquired by Chas. Wyndham from its author, R. Horniman, who is novelist and actor as well as playwright.

W. Davenport Adams, the well known dramatic critic, has died in his fifty-third year. For years he has been busily compiling a 'Dictionary of the Drama,' the first volume only of which he leaves completed.

Plans have recently been submitted to the London County Council for a huge Yiddish theatre, to be built in the East End, on a site acquired from the London Hospital. This site cost £10,000, and the building is to cost another £50,000, so it will be seen that this great Ghetto theatre, which is to be called the Orient, is expected to attract an extensive playgoing population. Every seat in it is to be bookable in advance.

Messrs. Harrison and Maude have arranged to produce Messrs. Jacobs and Parker's new play, tentatively called 'The Beauty and the Bargee,' at the New Theatre, on Tuesday, Aug. 30.

Edward Compton is looking for a West End theatre, as he is anxious to introduce to a London audience the dream play, 'Tomorrow,' in which he has been scoring a marked provincial success. The action of 'To-morrow' begins in 1776, and ends in 1903.

Albert Le Fré has been engaged to play the part of the Frenchman, Francois, in 'The Prince of Hohenheim.'

The famous Ten Ichl troupe of Japanese jugglers made their first appearance in England at the Alhambra, on Monday night. The Coliseum now being built in St. Martin's Lane, and intended to be ready for opening at Christmas, is to be a huge house, far larger than the Hippodrome. Its entertainments are to be on a very large scale, too, for there are to be no less than four performances a day—morning, afternoon, evening and night. The morning show will be a decided innovation, and the Coliseum will certainly be the only theatre in London that one can visit before lunch.

P. A. Lennon, of the Bradford Empire, has been selected for the post of manager of the Richmond Theatre when it opens as a music hall shortly.

The Empire holiday bill includes: Guido Gialdini, whistler; Sam Elton; T. Nelson Downs, king of coins; the Four Nightingales, in their ring act; Paulton and Doley, trick bicyclists; Tchernoff's performing ponies and dogs; the Four Merkel Sisters, acrobats, and 'High Jinks.'

Paul Valadon, the sleight of hand expert, having resigned his position with the Wizard of the Egyptian Hall, after a five years' most comfortable engagement, as he puts it, has joined Kellar, in America.

Included in the Hippodrome holiday programme is Carl Hertz, with new illusions; the Kellins, a troupe of a dozen acrobats, in their novel entertainment, entitled 'Vyneta'; the famous continental fire horse, trained by M. Salamonsky, and the thrilling scene, 'Siberia,' with its twenty-six plunging horses.

Charles Morton will be eighty-five years of age on Monday week. He intends, after the celebration of his birthday, to take a brief holiday at the seaside.

In addition of La Tortajada, Ella's Hons, Tom Hearn and Vesta Victoria, three new numbers were introduced into the Palace bill last Monday night, viz.: The Jalvans, Oriental entertainers; Les Cabiacs, eccentric acrobats, and Les Lios Alfa.

The Grand Theatre, Fulham, will be opened as a music hall on Oct. 10. Two houses nightly.

Kelly and Ashby sailed on Wednesday for a two months' trip to America. At its conclusion they will return direct to England. The two houses nightly system will be introduced at the Grand, Clapham Junction, Sept. 1.

Hart and Leo are this week at Bradford, and are making a big success with 'Follow the Crowd on a Sunday.'

The Staley Transformation Co. has returned from South Africa. It will play next week at the Empire, Newcastle, and then go on the continent for a season, after which it returns to England for the Moss tour, including eight weeks at the Hippodrome.

Lew Wells is making a fine record for himself on the Moss tour. He will be at the Palace, Hull, next week.

Cooke and Miss Rother are once more at the Moulin Rouge, in Paris. They are there for two months, and are big favorites at this particular house.

The Empire, Edinburgh, next week will have three American acts. Chung Ling Soo is the headliner, and besides him there are Bard and O'Brien, with their very clever wire act, and Harry Sheldon, whom I am to congratulate on the recent big success of his Earle and Earle come to the Palace next week with their banjo act.

OUR AUSTRALIAN LETTER.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SYDNEY, JULY 18. The great theatrical event was the first production of 'Fiddle-Dee-Dee' at the Palace Theatre, which opened 16 with a company brought out by Harry James, consisting of Kolb and Dill, Barney Bernard, Maude Amber, Winfield Blake and a host of other players. The verdict will really rest with the public, as the option of any one critic, or for that matter, all of them, will not affect it one way or the other. However, the impression of all who have witnessed it is that it will catch on, and if it does they will simply coin money Saturday evening, July 16, when the opening night was a time of anxiety to all the company before the curtain rose, as there was no telling what the Australian public would think of the show, and, being thousands of miles from 'home,' all hearts were in a flutter. The house was packed, and extra seat chairs and benches being placed in every available space, and hundreds being turned away, unable to gain even standing room. The audience was a fine one. The house held in money about $1,200, at prices $1.00 to 75 cents, and 25 cents, and 10 cents, or 4, 3, 2 and 1 shillings. On the raising of the curtain not a murmur came from the house. The opening chorus was encores, and the next number received two encores. Maude Amber's entrance was splendid, the dress by Blake and Amber won four encores, and the entrance of Kolb and Dill evoked a fine reception, and they made an instantaneous success. There was nothing but screams of laughter during their dialogue. Barney Bernard got a great reception. He caught on from the start, and was the recipient of applause on each subsequent appearance. From the looks of the first night's show it seems to spell a great success for the company in the colonies, and a long run of 'Fiddle-Dee-Dee' is not impossible.

The work of Samuel D. Simmons Jr., late master mechanic of Fischer's Theatre, San Francisco, and a member of the company in the same capacity, was a revelation. 'The Majesty's Theatre' is a new Zealand composed of New Zealanders, is in its second week and drawing crowded houses. They introduce in it a native Maori dance by genuine Maori boys and the ballet also gives good representation of the world-renowned Polynesian, which alone is worth the admission money.

At the Theatre Royal good houses have followed the revival of the naval and military drama, 'The Union Jack,' and Bland Holt is once more to the front with his inimitable low comedy buff.

At the Lyceum Theatre only five more performances can be given of 'The Power of Gold,' in which Walter Sanford's American players appear, and on Saturday next 'The Struggle for Life' is to be produced, in which there will be tableaux vivants.

'In the Palace of the King' is going to be produced also next Saturday at the Criterion with a company headed by Ernest Knight. In the meanwhile, J. C. Williamson's Comedy Co. is doing great business with 'The Marriage of Figaro.'

The principal attraction at the Tivoli is Will Van Allen, one of the latest arrivals in Sydney under engagement to Mr. Richards, who made his debut on Saturday. Like many others in his particular line of business, he impersonates the character of a tramp, to give the effect of contrast to his performance. He gave an admirably played operatic piece on a one-string violin, and his banjo solo showed high skill. He was also most amusing in his repertory, representing a musical dancer. The Tivoli again bewitched the audience by their astonishing skill as acrobats, and the Misses Moller and Teller, assisted by Dan Burke, repeated their sketch, 'The Professor and His Pupils.'

T. H. Winnett is at Sharon Springs, N. Y., enjoying a rest.

World of Players.

—Notes from O'Brien's Attractions: After five years of comedy Geo. A. O'Brien will take up drama again, and live over a life of emotional roles. In 1898 he resigned an emotional character on account of poor health and nervous prostration, and at the doctor's advice tried comedy successfully, playing Fritz Schmitt, in 'Six of a Kind,' his own comedy for two years, but he has decided to go back to the old life. His first appearance will be made sometime in September, after which he will produce his own pieces and handle the emotional roles. 'The President's Son' will be under the management of Arthur Dale; 'Crimes of Royalty,' Jasper H. Riggs, and 'Depths of Sin,' Geo. A. O'Brien.

—Al Sidwell, comedian, opens his third season with 'A Ragged Hero' Co. at Haverstraw, N. Y., Aug. 20, in his old role of Zeb Judkins, also acting as stage manager. Henry Otterbein, seventy-three years old, who, with his four sons, had a prosperous business in the manufacture of theatrical iron work in New York City, committed suicide Aug. 14, by hanging himself in the shop. —Charles Richman has been engaged as leading man for the Amelia Bingham Co.

BYRLE COLBY,
OF THE COLBY FAMILY.

MASTER FRANK COLBY,
OF THE COLBY FAMILY.

—Henry Clay Barnabee intends to go into vaudeville with Agnes Cain Brown, also of the Bostonians, he will appear in a short musical sketch at one of the Proctor houses about the middle of September. Campbell Donald, another former member of the Bostonians, and Meta Carson will also have roles in the sketch.

—Edna May returned to New York on Aug. 15, from England. She will begin rehearsals for 'The School Girl.'

Melbourne Macdowell was married recently to Bertha Woodin, a San Francisco girl, who will study for the stage. The marriage was held in some small country town a short time ago and has been kept a secret until last week.

—Charles Frohman returned last week from London. In an interview he said: 'In connection with the provinces before the present season is over we will be ready to announce a number of theatres that will come under our management and by another season Charles Frohman will have under his own direction in the city of London not less than seven theatres, besides a strong connection that will give him a tour of nearly twelve months each season for his companies.'

—Charles E. A. MacGeachy, who is connected with Chas. Frohman's business forces, was married on July 2, in Jersey City, N. J., to Annie D. K. Hone, a non-professional.

—Charles Baker and Laura Houston have been engaged by Manager J. S. Garside as a feature in their singing and dancing act. They report being treated kindly by the press everywhere.

—Roster of the Clara Thropp Co.: Arthur J. Pickens, Geo. Kingsley, Herbert Bethny, Robert Laing, Wm. Keating, Katherine Shaw, Ethel Akerman, Mariel Clark, Baby Dorothy, Clara Thropp, Shaw and Fleisher, managers; Robert Laing, stage manager; Wm. Keating, master of properties.

—Adele Ritchie, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Dr. Gil Wyllie's hospital in New York, was able to leave the hospital on Aug. 16 for her summer home, near Saugatuck, Conn. After a few weeks of rest she will begin rehearsals for 'Fantasia.'

Kyrie Bellew arrived in New York from England on Aug. 16, to begin a season's tour in 'Raffles.'

—Drina de Wolfe has been engaged by Jas. K. Hackett for the role of Madame Santenoy, in 'The Secret of Polchenelle.'

—Notes from the DuVries Stock Co., supporting Harry E. McKee and featuring the Great Amata: This will be one of the best of the season, with two of the most vaudeville highest priced acts for features and four other acts that are better than usually carried by a stock. Mr. DuVries has the No. 1 company at Asbury Park this summer and Mr. McKee is playing the circuit of parks through Pennsylvania with the No. 2. Both companies will be put together for the regular season, which opens Oct. 24. Our plays will be: 'A Mother's Sacrifice,' 'A Desperate Game,' 'Over the Hill from the Poor House,' 'A Soldier and a Man,' 'Found on the Door Step,' 'A Struggle to Live,' 'A Father's Curse,' 'The Lady and the Bee,' 'Her Son Jack,' 'The Fruit Tree Man' and 'A Woman's Honor.' People engaged for the regular season are: Mrs. Rutherford, Genevieve Rutherford, Alma Rutherford, Mrs. DuVries, Sam DuVries, Amata, Harry E. McKee, E. L. Thomas and Baby Jack. For Amata's act alone we carry a car load of effects, ten mirrors, five feet wide, eight feet high; a complete plush stage setting, four-horn power lamp for footlights, etc. Mr. McKee is looking after the booking of the company and has thirty-four weeks booked now. This company will run until July 29 next.

Kris Burr, comedian, with the Paulus Stock Co., who recently closed at Sidney, O., is spending a few weeks at Christies Lake, Perth, Ont., the summer home of the Marks Bros., before opening with the Joe Marks Co. He has signed with it for comedy and specialties.

Wm. B. Morris and Grace Thurston, after quite a long vacation, three months of which was spent sightseeing abroad and the rest of the time on their yacht, 'The Gracie,' cruising around Canadian waters, will soon settle into work again, having signed with Dick Ferris for one of his attractions, for leading business and songettes, respectively.

—Henry Crosby, of the Poli Summer Stock Co., at Bridgeport, Conn., was married in New York City on Aug. 4 to Mabel Dillingham, a non-professional.

—Lee Harris goes with Rusco & Holland's 'For Mother's Sake' as stage carpenter—his fifth season with the same management.

—Mabel Cleveland (Mrs. E. J. Parker) has gone to the City Hospital, Boston, in order to undergo a serious surgical operation.

—Rusco & Holland have engaged Wm. Potte Jr. to take charge of the advance of 'For Mother's Sake.' In which Marie Heath is to star, and E. C. Atkins will handle the business back with the show.

—Joseph Jefferson has been critically ill at his summer home, Crow's Nest, but is improving. He was taken ill with gastritis.

—Ray Templeton celebrated on Aug. 16 the thirty-seventh anniversary of her appearance on the stage. After the performance there was a dinner at her home, 3 West Thirtieth Street, New York.

—Notes from Mack & Armour's Comedians: We will open our second season during the latter part of August, playing three night stands. We will use all special plays, scenery and paper, and every production will be complete. The company is booked through Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa, playing all cities. Messrs. Mack and Mack have equipped the show in a first class manner and will strive to make it as near perfect as possible. Chas. Drew Mack and Dolly Armour head the cast and will be supported by an exceptionally strong company. Two big feature vaudeville acts will also be carried.

—Will C. Sites, business manager for the Ina Lehr Stock Co., No. 2, writes from Union, S. C., under date of Aug. 12: 'Business with this show has been only right, owing to the hard rains through this section of the country. Our roster remains the same. Our repertory includes the following: 'A Soldier's Sweetheart,' 'The Western Girl,' 'Inside Track,' 'The Hunter's Oath,' 'Wolves of New York,' 'The Eagle,' 'The Mail Girl,' and others. The company will play the South all winter.'

—Notes from the Bernard & Vincent Big Comedy Co.: The roster of our company, which opens the opera house at Sherman, Tex., Monday night, Aug. 22, is as follows: Bernard & Vincent, managers; Harry Vincent, advance representative; Edward Banks, treasurer; Theodore Lorch, Russell Snood, William Hutchison, Robert Hardaway, Ben Bernard, Sam Jacobson, Louisa Peters, Cecil Ray, Margarette Saxton, Maxine Miles. —William Currier writes: 'Owing to the fact that this is election year, Mrs. Currier and I have decided to close our company, which has had a successful season of eighteen weeks through Canada. During that time we put in six weeks at Hamilton. We played to the largest business ever known at Sherman's Mountain Park and received cordial praise from press and public.'

—Notes from the S. Sites Stock Co., H. S. Gilbert, manager: Our summer season opens Sept. 10, and our winter tour opens Sept. 12. Our roster for the regular season is: H. S. Gilbert, manager; Henry Dix, H. W. Hall, James Corson, the Fry Bros., Tom Carson, Annie Allison, Ethel Gilbert, Ida Faber, Jennie Lewis and Prof. Chas. King. Will C. Sites booked the show solid until June 10 next. He has turned everything in the management over to his brother, H. S. Gilbert.

—Notes from Rowland & Clifford Enterprises: Rehearsals for all the attractions of this firm are under way, the first to open at Braidwood, Ill., being 'The Gamekeeper,' with Thos. J. Smith in the title role. Howard Walsh has been specially engaged to create the juvenile, 'Over Niagara Falls' (C) opened at Woodstock, Ill., Aug. 19, and plays the West, proceeding to the coast. 'Over Niagara Falls' (B) opens at Aurora, Ill., Aug. 27, playing the middle West. 'Over Niagara Falls' (A) opens at Chicago, Ill., Sept. 1, playing all the city and Eastern territory. 'Dora Thorne' Co. opens at Joliet, Ill., Sept. 3. An elegant new equipment has been provided and the production promises to be a big winner. Edward Clifford, the entire company recovered from his threatened illness and is now daily reporting at the office.

—Chas. Kellman, flute and piccolo player, is now in his third season with Jas. T. McKee's 'Hans Hansen' Co. He recently finished two months playing with the Kenosha, Wis., band and orchestra.

—Notes from the Wallis Stock Co.: We opened our season at White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 15. Arthur Wallis heads the company and has the following people to support him: Beatrice Webster, Alvina York, Gertrude Nevatt, Margaret Merriman, Rosalind Zaleska, Raymond Earl, Ernest Wallis, J. J. Lealand, Walter McNulty, Wesley Connelly, Earl King, George Gilbert and the Wheeler Sisters. —Martin Bowers, tramp comedian and vocalist, is in his second season with 'Hans Hansen' Co., to do the tramp and act as stage manager.

—Marguerite France has joined Blaney's 'Factory Girl' Co., for songette and to do her specialty.

—Vivian C. Carson, known in private life as Mrs. H. K. Hexter, will appear this season with the Corinne Runkel Stock Co. —Mrs. James Brown Potter will come to America for a lengthy engagement in F. F. Proctor's theatres. Her engagement will begin the first or second week in October, and she will bring her own stage settings from England with her.

—Donald Brian has signed with Geo. M. Cohen's 'Little Johnny Jones.' The season opens Oct. 10, at Worcester, Mass.

—Messrs. Sullivan, Harris & Woods have released Virginia Zollman to Messrs. Appell & Deshon. She has been engaged by the latter managers as leading lady with the Kirk Brown Co.

—B. W. Carpenter goes with the Eastern 'Over Niagara Falls' Co., to play the repertory.

—Notes from the Myers Stock Co.: The second week of our second season found us at Wilkesbarre, Pa., where we were welcomed by an immense audience at the opening performance Monday evening, and business continued good throughout the week. The entire company was well received, certain calls being a nightly occurrence. Rosabel Leslie, who is featured this season, was the recipient of much praise for her clever work in the many difficult roles which she assumed during the week. She has easily established herself as a favorite. Our repertory at present includes: 'Man's Enemy,' 'At Cozy Corners,' 'Bewitched of Men,' 'The Black Hand,' 'On the Stroke of Twelve,' 'Woman's Victory,' 'For Honor's Sake,' 'Her Brother's Crime,' and an elaborate production of 'East Lynne,' which we are using for a matinee play. We carry a sixty foot car of scenery and effects, sufficient to give each piece a complete scenic production.

—Clytie Barkley, who on July 28 underwent an operation for a tumor, is resting at the home of her parents, at Humboldt, Kan. —Wyl-Ken Rhohart and Creely Castleman have been engaged for 'Girls Will Be Girls' Co.

—Notes from the Lockes: We open our season Aug. 24, at Mount City, Mo. Roster of the company: A. E. Johnson, C. D. Hesse, Will J. Peters, Guy E. Browne, Ed. F. Summers, Floyd B. Furber, Tom Spencer, Henry W. Locke, Will H. Locke, Hazel Chesterfield, Della Locke and Beulah Monroe. We have again leased from Al. Thabern, Jessie Mae Hall's success, 'The Princess of Patches,' with the exclusive rights in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma Territory.

—Truly Shattuck recently signed with Geo. M. Cohen for his latest play, 'Little Johnny Jones.' Miss Shattuck will take the role of Florabelle Fly, a San Francisco newspaper woman. She will begin vaudeville in Cincinnati and Louisville prior to commencing rehearsals with Mr. Cohen's Co.

—Engaged by Al. Woods, of Sullivan, Harris & Woods: Florence Tarshi and Margaret McKee, for 'The Golden Rule' Co. —Jack E. Magee and Teresa A. Dale open with the 'Human Hearts' Co., Aug. 28, at Crawford's Theatre, St. Louis, Miss Dale playing the lead and Mr. Magee the comedy.

The company is booked solid until next June and will go to the coast and back. —James J. B. Rourke, musical director, will close Aug. 20, with the Rho Lorraine Co., to open Aug. 22 with Chas. H. Roskams's Chicago Stock Co., at Niagara Falls, N. Y., making his second season with this organization.

—John Drew recently returned to New York from Easthampton for rehearsals of 'The Duke of Killcrankie,' at the Empire Theatre. Fanny Brough, who is to play in this piece, has arrived from Europe.

—Edna May paid recent visits to her home at Syracuse and remained there for a few days. 'The School Girl' rehearsals began last week at Daly's.

—Among the recent engagements made by Henry W. Savage were: Gertrude Clark, the Turtle Dove, in 'Woodland,' and Dan Collier for 'Matty' McGowan, in 'The College Widow.'

—Harry E. Willard writes: 'Immediately following the end of my engagement with the Bellows Stock Co., I will begin rehearsals for my season in 'Captain Racket,' opening Sept. 12, with a carefully selected cast, special paper and several high class vaudeville features. The production will be under the personal direction of the author. I have secured some excellent bookings.'

—Irene T. Daniel, who has been spending the summer at Stamford-in-the-Catskills, has returned to New York and is now rehearsing the role of Bessie Darling, in the Eastern company of A. H. Woods' 'Queen of the White Slaves.'

—Chester De Monde is unable to sign at present owing to illness. He is suffering with a severe attack of sciatica, but has hope of being able to resume work in a short time.

—Sol L. Lowenthal, late manager of the 'Orpheon' and La Salle Theatres, Chicago, has secured the new Curtis Theatre, Denver Col., for this season. He writes: 'This house is being entirely rebuilt, and when completed will be one of the finest theatres in the West, with the seating capacity increased to sixteen hundred. I will place a permanent musical stock company in the new Curtis Theatre, a complete season of Weber & Fields' famous musical productions will be given, with the following cast: Jos. E. Howard, Ida Emerson, Allen Curtis, Lipman and Rose, Camille Calhoun, Cardowine Sisters, Alice Gordon, May Keenan, Bowman Brothers, John Emerson and the company of thirty male and female voices. New costumes, special scenery and electrical effects will be made for each production, the same being changed weekly. The season at this theatre will open Saturday night, Aug. 20, the opening production being 'Fiddle-Dee-Dee,' which will be produced in the same elaborate manner as the original production.'

—Florence Tarshi will hereafter be known professionally as Florence Hadley. She is with Al. Woods' 'Rachel Goldstein' Co., playing the title role.

—Mrs. T. J. Boyle has sold her interest in 'The Two Little Sailor Boys' to J. Gordon Edwards, in order that she may devote her entire attention to her stock company at Nashville, Tenn. The tour will be successful English play, which opens Aug. 20, at the West End Theatre, New York, will be under the direction of George H. Brennan.

—Folk's Opera House, at Bamberg, S. C., was recently completed with modern scenery, lights, seats, etc. The season will commence Sept. 1.

—The regular season of the Van Dyke & Eaton Co. opened at Springfield, Ill., July 24. The company includes: Mack, Will McKee, Wm. B. Morris, Fred Langley, James McCoy, Conn. P. McCoy, Adam H. Gantz, Fred Langley, Dan Murphy, 'Roulette,' Alice Jackson, Bessie Jackson, Sadie McConnell and the 'Felix' Trio. The tour will be given with the Kirk Brown Co. opens its season at Altoona, Pa., Aug. 29. Managers Appell & Deshon have equipped this organization with entirely new scenery and properties. The repertory comprises: 'Under the Red Robe,' 'The Man Who Dared,' 'Othello,' 'Cumberland,' 'David Garrick,' 'The Wheat King,' 'Prince Otto,' etc. The roster: Kirk Brown, Louis Lytton, Rogers Barker, Armand Anthony, Chas. Newman, J. H. Taylor, Geo. P. Randall, Fred Chauncey, Thos. De Ver, Robert Livingston, Chas. K. Thomas, Virginia Zollman, Inez Adams, Helen McCabe, Ananias Blossom, Grace Gibson, Olive Miller.

—Mrs. Chas. A. Taylor (Laurette Cooney) recently gave birth to a baby girl.

—Roster of the John Griffith Co., in 'Macbeth,' John M. Hickey, manager, is as follows: Thomas Taylor, acting manager; A. Renwick Sanders, advance agent; John Davidson, electrician; Charles Hartley, stage manager; Michael J. Keane, properties; James J. McGovern, stage carpenter; Louise Ripley, Margaret Marquis, Leopold Ambrose, Belle Webster, E. P. Sullivan, Claude Soares, Charles Hartley, W. C. Andrews, Wm. W. Van Dolson, John S. Haight, Edwin Norcross, Julius M. Winslow, Perry Adams and John Griffith. Season opens Sept. 5.

—Notes from the 'Policy Players' Co.: We will inaugurate our season Aug. 29, under the direction of Uly S. Hill and Clarence Logan. The company this year will include the best colored talent obtainable, numbering forty people, traveling in our own hotel car, equipped with all the comforts necessary for this organization. The tour embraces the better class of popular priced houses and includes the company's annual two weeks' engagement at Washington, D. C. The company has been rehearsing since Aug. 15. Many new features will be introduced and it is safe to say the tour will be a successful one.

Vaudeville and Minstrel.

NOTES FROM McDERMOTT & DIAMOND'S MINSTRELS.—Our season will open at Irwin, Pa., on Saturday, Sept. 17. Our route, which is pretty much all contracted for, will carry us up through the middle West until January. Thence over the Southern route to California, up the sound to Victoria, B. C., then over the Northern route home. This company has been organized specially for this tour, and it is safe to say that nothing finer or better equipped has been launched in minstrelsy in America. Not the largest, but as near perfection in talent as money and brains can procure. Our street parade of thirty-five people, headed by our premier band of eighteen, will prove a pleasing feature. Originals throughout, our first part scenery, stage settings, etc., will be a picture of beauty and elegance, while our first part costumes have been secured regardless of expense. Our double quartet of singers should prove equal to every demand. We shall give our patrons a clean and refined entertainment—something to please and interest ladies and children as well as men. We have secured a handsome Pullman car, and our people will enjoy all the pleasures of home while en route. We are going out to please, to win and to stay. Roster of company: W. T. McDermott, sole owner; Charles E. Rose, manager; Col. C. W. Roberts, business manager; W. P. Holton, agent; W. T. McDermott, treasurer; Matt Diamond, stage manager; Frank Herrick, musical director. Members of company: Ray Belter, Henry Maun, Lonie Scheidt, Chas. Barringer, Fred Roberts, A. C. Larrivee, Arthur Sampson, Vic Llewellyn, Thos. Webster, John Richards, Lawrence Diamond, Lee Sandman, R. Reed, Walter Rose, George Barrett, George Little, Lew Diamond, B. B. Thompson, John Monahan, John Lemuels, Barry & Bivins, Francis McDermott, Joseph Cox, Fin Wade, the Buckeye Trio, Jack St. Bernard, F. W. McDermott, Jack Ray, P. F. Perkins, F. W. Bowen and Matt Diamond.

CALEF & WALDRON write: "We have just closed a very pleasant two weeks' engagement at Cook's Park, Evansville, Ind., which ends our vaudeville season for 1904. We begin our rehearsals for our Chicago stock engagement this week, at the Calumet Theatre, where we will be all winter under the management of John T. Connors. We cannot say too much of the excellent treatment received by us from Managers Harry Laurence and Felix Seiffert, of Cook's Park."

THE JOSELYN TITO, who will open their season Oct. 17 on the Keith circuit, are booked solid until May.

WILL H. ARMSTRONG, of Armstrong and Holly, writes: "We are at the World Fair, St. Louis, indefinitely. I will present in vaudeville this season one of the greatest comedy acts ever produced, entitled 'The Expressman,' revised and edited by Clayton White and myself. New scenery, properties and electrical effects, etc. Everything will be fireproof and we will have five hanging pieces, beautiful wardrobe and gorgeous stage setting, making it one of the greatest comedy character acts in vaudeville."

LE VEE AND VAN are in their second season with Lucier's Minstrels, and report meeting with much success in their latest singing and dancing specialty.

A BIRTHDAY SUPPER was tendered Margaret Rivers at the home of Miss Toney Devere on Monday night, Aug. 15. Alice Blair and Lillian Florence officiated. A merry crowd of performers gathered. Miss Rivers was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Nat Gitt, who closed over the Kohl & Castle circuit at the Chicago Opera House, Aug. 28, with Electric Park, Newark, N. J., and Tony Pastor's to follow. He has signed with Quinlan & Wall's Imperial Minstrels for this season.

THOS. P. KELLEY writes that his Big Lady Minstrels open their fourth season on Sept. 5, at Ottawa. The company numbers upwards of forty people, including a big European novelty act, comprising twelve people. New costumes, scenery and electrical effects will make the biggest and most pretentious show ever managed by Mr. Kelley.

STUART AND LA VARD have been featured all season as an outside attraction at leading parks. They close at Bass Point, Nahant, Mass., on Aug. 29, and then open over the Harold Cox circuit for several weeks.

NOTES FROM RICHARDS & PHINLEY'S GEORGIA MINSTRELS.—W. A. Rusco, of the firm of Rusco & Holland, left the show at Kansas City, Mo., and spent a few days at his farm up in Michigan. He will join the show at Memphis, Tenn. Wm. Wm. will join the band director. The band numbers nineteen mouthpieces. "Clever" Billy Young is now with this show and Geo. Seiple is our stage carpenter. The Four Toney, acrobats, are recent additions. J. J. Holland, Fred Barton and Alex. Lawrence are handling the advance.

FRANK TAIT, "human torch" and high diving act, and Prof. A. Alfreno, high wire expert, were special features of last week's bill at Olympic Park, Newark, N. J. The vaudeville roster included: Coner's dog show, Aldo and Armour, acrobats; Robert and his bears, and Sinclair and Carlisle, in a comedy wire act.

JOE BOWERS, of Bowers and Curtis, writes: "We played Stockton, Cal., week of Aug. 8, making thirty-two weeks on the coast. Have traveled its entire length from British Columbia, North, into Mexico. We lost but five weeks, two of them to make jumps. I laid off to get my degrees in the Red Men at San Diego, Cal. Played nothing but the best work on the coast. We lay off week of Aug. 15 in order to rehearse for the road with our own show, the Orpheum Stars. We will carry twelve people and special scenery and paper, making one of the best equipped and strongest shows that ever played over the territory, which includes Eastern California, Idaho, Arizona, New Mexico and Northern Texas."

C. W. KOLB, of Kolb and Dill, writes from Sydney, Australia, that he is in fine health. He and his partner have been given high praise by the Australian press for their work in "Fiddle-Dee-Dee."

THE DANCING VIOLINIST, Frank Whitman, writes: "I am presenting an entirely new dancing act this season. J. W. Gorman has engaged me for five years to play at the leading Boston parks. The audiences at Norumbega Park recently were enthusiastic over my work, and the press gave me credit of having an act that is a surprise."

THE PAGODA GIRL, a new vaudeville comedietta, which is said to be quite clever, is owned by John Lether of M. Witmark & Sons. The book is by Paul West, and the lyrics by John W. Bratton.

J. M. AND MRS. J. M. FOLEY, of the Empire Theatre, Ashtabula Harbor, O., report good business and fine shows.

HOWARD FINKEL has signed with the Monarch Four—De Shone, Johnson, True-dell and Fiedling—for this season, and has some good time booked.

THE MODAS, comedy ring performers, have concluded a successful two weeks' engagement at Governor's Theatre, Atlantic City, N. J. The week of Aug. 15 they were engaged at Olympic Park, Hilton, N. J.

HARRY ELTING, who has been filling the position of press agent at Cycle Park, Dallas, Tex., was recently presented with an elegant gold watch and chain by Manager McAdams. Mr. Elting will resume his position at Cycle Park next season.

THE FINNIGANS recently closed six weeks at Riverside Park, Anderson, Ind., and were last week at Boyd Park, Peru, with Benj. Park, Logansport, to follow. They are booked up for the season.

THE JUGGLING COMERS presented their new act at the new Orpheum Theatre, St. Paul, recently, and will play Cleveland's, Chicago, week of Sept. 4.

NOTES FROM THE NEW YORK STARS.—This company gave a performance Wednesday evening, Aug. 17, at Catskill, N. Y., prior to the opening of its regular season Saturday evening, Aug. 20, at the Dewey Theatre, Minneapolis, Minn. In point of elaborate costuming, magnificent equipment and excellence of cast, nothing has been overlooked that would tend to make this one of the most pretentious productions playing the circuit of a two act farce comedy, interpreted by a cast that is notable for capability and evenness, assisted by a large chorus of young and pretty girls in original and novel ensembles. In addition to the above, between the acts there is an interlude of high class features. The following is the roster of the company: Three Lillies, H. J. Kooper, Alice Porter, John McMahon, His Grannon, George and Lillian Brennan, Archer and Croker, Goldie De Vere, Sara Carr, Kittle Hess, Jessie May, Nellie Stapleton, Julie De Val, Florence Moore, Minnie Brunton, Annie O'Keefe, Kittle Murray, Rena Weaver, Theresa Johns, Mae De Vean, John S. Raynor, manager; E. F. Brooks, musical director, and Jos. Weeger, stage carpenter.

SAM HOON, "the Joy Incubator," after playing fourteen weeks on the Three L circuit, in California, is now on the Goldsmith circuit in the Northwest, with the Novelty circuit to follow. He reports big success in every house he has played, and states that he was featured at the Arcade Theatre, in Portland, Ore.

THE MILLARD BROS., singers, dancers and banjoists, have played Keith's Theatre, New York, and Keith's New Theatre, Philadelphia, recently.

FRED ZOBEDIE.

Gymnast and marvelous hand-balancer, is here shown mounted upon one section of his beautifully nicker-plated stage equipment. His vaudeville specialty is a novelty in great demand, his popularity being proven by the fact that he is booked in American vaudeville, with the exception of a few weeks in October and November, for a term of several months. One of Zobedie's latest feats of daring was at Minneapolis, June 24, when he gave his performance on top of The Times Building before thousands of people congregated on the street, nearly two hundred feet below his hazardous perch.

NOTES FROM HYDE'S COMEDY CO.—We are sorry to see our tenting season drawing to a close, as it has been both profitable and pleasant. We go from here (Dexter, Me.) to Camp Benson, Newport, Me., for ten days, by request, and then to Camp Etna (Etna Park), for one week, and that closes our tenting season. We open our hall season at Milo, Me., and have good bookings for the Fall season. The roster of the company is the same as at last writing. Business is of the best and every one is happy. We will be obliged to make some changes in our roster later, owing to some members of our company closing to join other companies, as per previous arrangements, but we expect to have good people take their places. Better ones are hard to find than those we have with us.

GRACE PALATTA, assisted by four other dancers, will be one of the features of Martin Beck's Orpheum Show this season. Miss Palatta was here some years ago, a member of Edwards's Gaiety Girls, which also included Cissy Fitzgerald. The act will be a novelty in the line of singing and graceful dancing.

JOHN H. KING reports meeting with success with Lew Locksater's Minstrels. Alice Lewis appears at Rye Beach, N. Y., week of Aug. 22. Last week she was resting at her home in New York City, owing to the closing of Forest Park, Waterbury, Conn.

MARION AND DEANE recently closed ten successful weeks on the Melville circuit, at Pottsville, Pa., and after a short vacation, at Atlantic City, they will play a few parks in New Jersey before their regular season opens.

JOE A. HARDMAN, who recently closed with Frank Melville, is now on the Flynn circuit, and is doing well.

CLEM C. MAGEE, lightning crayon worker, comedian, vocalist and dancer, will work alone this season.

ABE HARRIS, Hebrew impersonator, will go with Ward's Big Show this season.

THE KENNEDY CHILDREN (Iris and Helen) are playing roles and doing their specialties with the Kennedy Comedy Co., touring New York State.

GLADYS MIDDLETON, who has been in Cripple Creek, Colo., a guest at the Harrison home, gave a farewell reception to her friends Aug. 9. She will resume her work in the West, where she is booked solid to Christmas, opening at Reno, Nev., Aug. 22.

WALDO WHITPLE closed a successful Summer season Aug. 13, on the J. J. Flynn park circuit, to report for rehearsals with the Murray & Mackey Co., at Parkersburg, W. Va.

CARL HERRBERT, California magician, has just closed successful engagements at Lion Palace and Tony Pastor's, with the Keith circuit to follow.

NOTES FROM T. W. DINKINS' ATTRACTIONS.—Dinkins' Utopians Co. opened its regular season in Baltimore on Aug. 1, to a packed house, and the show caught on immediately. Manager Dinkins paid special attention this season to the wardrobe and scenery, and the press and public were unanimous in voting it splendidly dressed show. Every season the Utopians give some novelty as a feature, and this season's novelty is a very elaborate march, entitled "The Congress of Nations." Each girl represents a different nationality, dressed in a costume of an officer in the army of the country she represents. Particular care was taken that the costumes were exact copies of the originals, and the result is a magnificent display of color and wardrobe. The complete roster of the show is as follows: Madden and Jess, Mildred Stoller, Fredo and Pare, the Boston City Quartet, Valmore and Horton, Ruth Jordan, Blanche Rose, Ada Collins, Annie Kelly, Kitty Evans, Nancy Tempest, Lillian Everett, Doris Levee, George Ballard, Gertrude Rozene, Marie Jansen, Sadie Melville, Lillian Horton, Fessie Jones, Made Jay, Vivian Jackson, Helen Montrose, W. H. Schilling, musical director; Chas. Cary, carpenter, and William V. Jennings, acting manager. T. W. Dinkins' Innocent Maids this season will be larger and stronger in every way, with new scenery, new wardrobe and new electrical effects, and full line of new paper is ready. The Maids will open the season in Boonton, N. J., on Aug. 27, and are booked solid in the better class of one, two and three nights in the United States and Canada. They will offer three shows in one—a farce, a vaudeville programme and a burlesque. The company consists of: Adams and Drew, Lyseter and Cooke, Sadie Clark, the Kaufman Brothers, Blackford and West, Blanche Wilson, Florence Robinson, Francis Bates, Phyllis Clendenen, May Raymond, Anna Dunbar, Ofelia Rivera, Blanche Mayes, Mabel Johnson, Oscar C. Levee, Bessie Shaffer, Clare Stover, Oscar Goodfriend, musical director; Harry Williams, carpenter; E. W. Chipman, acting manager, and P. C. Huffman, business manager and in advance.

WHILE playing at Sanatoga Park, Pottstown, Pa., week of Aug. 8, the novel incident of three birthdays occurred in the company that week: Chas. Jordan, of Jordan and White; Roger Dolan, of Roger and Bella Dolan, and Will C. Smith were the performers. Each celebrated the affair with a party, which were enjoyed by all present. Chas. Jordan was presented with a solid gold watch; Roger Dolan was presented with a fine Elk pin, and Will C. Smith with a handsome gold ring, after which all were taken to the residence of Mrs. Drake, where they were tendered all the good things that go to make an evening pleasant. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Al. Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dolan, Will C. Smith, Chas. Jordan, Madeline Lowrie, Mae Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Fredman and Mr. and Mrs. Myers.

LULU AND GUS KEELER have separated. The former is working alone and reports doing nicely.

L. M. GRANAT, whistler, is in his ninth week at the New York Theatre Roof.

GAUL WOLFE, singer and dancing comedian, formerly of Lawrence and Wolfe, has returned to the city to resume her professional duties, after spending several weeks in Sullivan County, N. Y.

R. OBERMAYER returned from Europe last week with an Austrian drill and dancing specialty, the Bohemian Musical Troupe, the Five Bellater Acrobatic Potpourri and the Dandy Trio of English dancers for Fred Irwin's two shows.

BENNY AND GRACE opened on the Goldsmith circuit Aug. 8, and report meeting with success.

THE ORPHEUS COMEDY FOUR are engaged for "The West Point Cadet" Co., to open at the Princess Theatre, New York, Sept. 26.

DAVIS AND WILSON are in a few weeks at Charlotte Beach, Rochester, N. Y., prior to starting on a circuit of the Western houses, opening at Chicago, Ill., for W. S. Cleveland. They report that their act is improved by the addition of many novelties, and hence will receive immense favor.

WASHER BROS., boxing midgets, have been engaged for this season to go with Jack Hoeller's Western Co.

JEANNETTA MARTELLA informs us that she opened at the Novelty Theatre, Newark, N. J., Monday, Aug. 15, after which she will work the rest of the Lubelski circuit, lasting ten weeks.

RAWLES AND VON KAUFMAN write: "After playing four weeks in Colorado, over the Lubelski circuit, we booked a return date at the Novelty, Denver. Our act is a feature, and we are booked solid to the coast."

"RUBE" RYAN is doing his street advertising specialty for Olympic Park, Newark, N. J. He has signed with Sullivan, Harris & Woods, and will be seen in advance of the "For Her Children's Sake" Co.

BLANCHE RAYMOND, eccentric dancer, has begun a twelve weeks' engagement on the Ohio circuit.

BENNY AND BERRY have a return date at Pastor's Jan. 2. They are now on the Boom circuit of parks for six weeks. Mr. Berry, who is working white face now instead of black, writes that he added a new electric instrument last week, and it proved a decided success.

MLIE. SOUSA, magician, will be assisted this season by Harry Sloan, comedian, late of the "Prince of Liars," and at present with the "Fall of Pompeii," at Dreamland, Coney Island.

TIM RUNKELS (Master Dave and Corinne), formerly of the Breton-Runkel Trio, are resting at Chicago, after a pleasant visit to the St. Louis Exposition. Miss Runkel will head her own show this season.

DE WEE AND DRUMMOND were compelled to cancel all their engagements, owing to the severe illness of Mr. De Monde, who has had sciatic rheumatism for more than six months. After spending a couple of weeks at Hunter's Springs Baths, Kramer, Ind., and at Mt. Clemens, Mich., he has returned to his home at Zanesville, O., where he is trying to regain his health. He has strong hopes of soon being able to be at work again. They received some very good notices on their Southern trip.

IN A RECENT COMMUNICATION FROM WOLF'S COMEDIANS there appeared a reference to Billy Pearl, of Marion and Pearl, stating that Crystal Madeline, daughter of Mr. Pearl and Ida Dunner Carlisle, had received a present of a new automobile. Mr. Pearl writes that he has no ten year old daughter, and was never married to the Miss Carlisle mentioned.

FRANK AND LOUISE BEVERLEY are in their fourth week at the Melville park circuit, Spokane. After their first week in vaudeville they were engaged indefinitely for dramatic and burlesque stock productions by Mr. Cassidy. Mr. Beverley is playing leads, etc.

THE SISTERS WAGNER, after playing parks and resorts all Summer and spending three pleasant weeks at Atlantic City, have joined Cliff Grant's Show for this season.

FLORENCE PRINCETON, of the Princeton Sisters, sails for Paris Aug. 18, with her husband, James F. Walthour, of Walthour and Kramers. She recently recovered from a serious illness.

BURNS AND CHARCOAL were at Riverside Park, Bangor, Me., last week.

CLIFFORD AND ORTH are playing leading parks in the East, and report that their act is going big everywhere. Week of Aug. 27 they are at Crescent Park, R. I., after which they open over the Western circuit for twenty weeks.

JAMES AND CELIA WELCH are meeting with success on the Melville park circuit, and are going big everywhere. Week of Aug. 27 they are at Crescent Park, R. I., after which they open over the Western circuit for twenty weeks.

DREAMLAND, Wm. H. Reynolds, President. Coney Island, N. Y., Aug. 12, '04.
THOMAS J. RYAN, Esq., Philadelphia, Pa.:
My Dear Mr. Ryan:—It has occurred to me to express my satisfaction in connection with your attraction in Dreamland, namely, "Coasting Through Switzerland." The attraction is unique and pleasing in every detail, and is a delightful conception carried out to the most gratifying and entertaining completion. The expressions of pleasure that come to my attention from all who have availed themselves of this trip certainly indicate that it is in high favor with the public. I consider it one of the most attractive features of Dreamland.

BLOOD POISON

FACTS of Vital Importance to Every Sufferer of Blood Poison.

FACT ONE—It takes time to tell whether you are permanently cured by a treatment or merely patched up for the present.

FACT TWO—The Cook Remedy Co. is the only company or medical association in existence that has been treating Blood Poison long enough to know that its patients are cured to stay cured.

FACT THREE—The Cook Remedy Co. has many patients who were cured by its magic remedy eighteen years ago who are today sound and well.

FACT FOUR—The Cook Remedy Co. is the largest and the only successful company

FACT FIVE—Patients cured by Cook Remedy Co. are constantly passing successfully the various rigid examinations of the most conservative life insurance companies, and are passing the examinations for admission to the army and navy of the United States.

FACT SIX—If you take Cook Remedy Co.'s treatment under their guarantee you are absolutely sure of a cure or your money back.

FACT SEVEN—Every other method of treatment known to the medical profession gives but temporary relief.

FACT EIGHT—Good health is the most important thing in the world to any person.

The Cook Remedy Co. solicit the most obstinate cases, and challenge the world for a case they cannot cure. This disease has always baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. For many years the Cook Remedy Co. have made a specialty of treating this disease, and they have unlimited capital behind their unconditional guaranty.

You can be treated at home for the same price and with the same guaranty. With those who prefer to go to Chicago the Cook Remedy Co. will contract to cure them or pay railroad and hotel bills, and make no charge if they fail to cure.

If you have pimples, eruptions, mucous patches, pains, rheumatism, etc., write for Cook Remedy Co.'s free home treatment book, and learn all about contagious blood poison. If you want medical advice, give a history of your case, and their physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever.

Your salvation depends on Cook Remedy Co., and on them alone. They will surely cure you. No other method of treatment will cure you.

Why Hesitate One Day in Beginning this Wonderful Cure!

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Western Bureau,
Room 502, Ashland Block, Chicago.

Sunday, Aug. 21, marks the dividing point of an important fortnight. Two theatres open, one house closes, the attraction changes at one down town theatre and at three others the current attractions enter upon their final performance. With the concluding performance of "The Forbidden Land," Saturday night, the Illinois closed its summer season, billed to reopen Sept. 5, with Fritz Scheff, in the first production on any stage of "The Two Roses." At Powers' Blanche Ring terminated her eleven weeks' engagement, in "Vivian's Pappas," 20, giving way to Amelia Bingham, who, on Sunday night, 21, is announced for a fortnight of repertory, beginning with "The Climbers." "Buster Brown," at the Great Northern; Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabage Patch, at the Grand Opera House, and "The Royal Chef," at the Garrick, enter upon their concluding weeks Sunday night. On Sunday afternoon the two local representatives of the burlesque "wheel"—the Follies and the Tivoli—begin their season after a thorough process of reconstruction. The Folly adds a new name to the local catalogue, but there is no new theatre to match it, the name of Hopkins' Theatre having been changed, along with the policy of the house. Hopkins' previously played burlesque attractions but last autumn it was over to the Stair & Havlin circuit of popular priced dramatic houses. Owing to unsatisfactory business under the rule of dramatic art the house now turns to burlesque. Frank B. Carr's Thoroughbreds will open on Monday, August Folly and Robert Fulton's own road show, the Jolly Grass Widows, will start the season at Trocadero. The week stands opening Sunday afternoon include: "At Cripple Creek," of the Criterion; "Out of the Fold," at the Columbus; "A Little Outcast," at the Bijou, and "The Wayward Son," at the Alhambra. "The Yankee Consul" enters upon its third week at the Studebaker Monday evening. Vaudeville at Cleveland's and the Chicago Opera House and summer burlesque at Sam T. Jack's, along with summer entertainment at Sans Souci, Water Chutes and Riverview, constitute the amusement bill of fare for the current days. Brooke's Chicago Marine Band, at the Coliseum and the second week of "Last Days of Pompeii," out on the West side are attractions in a class by themselves. Next Sunday, 28, brings De Wolf Hopper, in a revival of "Wang," to the Garrick Theatre, and the new Hamilton-Mitchell production, "Birds of a Feather," comes to the Grand Opera House. The Haymarket will also reopen 28. One week later the Academy of Music will reopen, the La Salle will probably begin another season of musical stock, and the regular season at Powers', the Illinois and McKiv's will be inaugurated. The Players' Stock Co., at the Bush Temple of Music, will also be in line by Labor Day and the new stock company at the People's Theatre will likewise begin operations within a fortnight. With few exceptions every theatre which is likely to bid for local patronage this season will be in operation by Sept. 5. Aside from the prospect of lively times hereabouts "when Summer comes," the season is looking for a possibly five summer parks in operation within the broad confines of Cook County next Spring. Riverview has proven a success during its first season, in spite of generally unfavorable weather conditions; Sans Souci and Water Chutes will maintain their accustomed station in popular favor and one, perhaps two, additional Summer outing spots are contemplated. Paul D. Howse, long associated with the management of Sans Souci; Joseph H. Jones, a local capitalist, has organized a stock company and leased thirteen and a half acres at Sixty-third Street and South Park Avenue, for the purpose of conducting an out-door amusement resort. The season will last May 15, next, and will last for four and a half months, an unusually long term for Chicago parks. Paul D. Howse, who will be general manager of the new park, informs me that there is a sufficiency of money in sight to carry to completion the most elaborate plans ever hatched for an amusement resort of like character in the West. The work of filling in the property has begun, and the structural arrangements will be carried forward all winter. Mr. Howse states that the best features of Sans Souci and Dreamland will be incorporated in the general details, as well as a selection of features and factors suggested by other out of door resorts throughout the country. The electrical display will be a particularly noteworthy feature of the new park, and a zoo of trained animals which will be kept open to the public the year round. Robert F. Walker, secretary of the Athletic Park Amusement Co., which now operates Athletic Park, in Buffalo, arrives here last week for the purpose of selecting a site for another new park which his company plans to open here next Spring. Mr. Walker, however, disclosed no details of his plans nor did he tell me anything about the probable location of the contemplated resort.

ILLINOIS THEATRE (Will J. Davis, manager).—"The Forbidden Land" ended a mildly successful summer career of seven weeks Saturday night, Aug. 20. Darkness will reign for a fortnight, and on Sept. 5, Fritz Scheff will inaugurate her second American tour, billed to give the first performance on any stage of "The Two Roses," a pastoral opera by Stanislaus Stange and Ludwig Engländer. Roland Cunningham, an English tenor new to this country, and Louis Harrison, Clarence Handysides, Josephine Bartlett, Ida Hawley, and Louise La Baron will be prominent members of the presenting forces.

POWERS' THEATRE (Harry J. Powers, manager).—Amelia Bingham, with Chas. Richmond and Frank Worthing featured in her support, begins a fortnight engagement with "The Climbers" on Sunday night, 21. A week will be given over to a repertory of her plays. Then, on Sept. 5, Ethel Barrymore comes to inaugurate the regular season. Blanche Ring ended eleven weeks of "Vivian's Pappas" minus two nights, 15, 16, spent in dedicating the new theatre at Ravenna Park, just north of here on Saturday night, 20. Souvenirs marked what was stated to be the ninety-ninth performance on Friday night, 19. During her Summer stay at this popular house, during which she established herself in permanent favor with our playgoers and "Vivian's Pappas" was voted a success.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Fred R. Hamlin, business manager).—Madge Carr Cook and her talented associates enter upon the last week of "Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabage Patch," on Sunday evening, 21. Business remains at a legal capacity standard, and the play has won lasting favor with our lovers of ideal dramatics. Next Sunday evening, 28, "Bird Center" comes in for a bit of a run. Its original production being planned for Peoria, Ill., during the current week. Glen Macdonough is the author of the new comedy. It is based upon the Bird Center cartoons of John T. McEntee, which were widely popular hereabouts during their serial appearances in The Chicago Tribune. Julian Mitchell is making the production, and the company will include: George Richards, Edward J. Connelly, William Burress, Charles Wayne, Eugene O'Rourke, Louis Payne, Walter Archie, Mabel Strickland, Estelle Mori, Rosa Cooke, Blanche Chapman and Ipha Dahl.

GARRICK THEATRE (Chas. A. McD., business manager).—During the fifth and last week of "The Royal Chef," which begins Sunday night, 21, the new principles engaged for the New York opening of the piece will replace the actors who have brought the clever comedy to a marked local success. Sam Collins will succeed Dave Lewis in the title role, Gertrude Millington will replace Helen Dale and J. C. Miron and Amelia Stone will be among the other new principles. De Wolf Hopper is announced for a revival of "Wang," beginning as soon as contemplated alterations and interior changes can be made, which will probably be on Sept. 12.

STUDEBAKER THEATRE (R. E. Harmeyer, business manager).—"The Yankee Consul" is the one present attraction whose local candidacy is likely to continue for a time. Raymond Hitchcock, who is featured, and his associates, start the piece upon the third week of its present engagement Monday evening, 22. Business continues fine.

THEATRE (E. D. Stair, manager).—"The fifth and concluding week of "Buster Brown" is successful second visit to this theatre begins Sunday afternoon, 21. "Under Southern Skies" is announced for next Sunday. Owing to the rush to see Master Gabriel, Geo. All and the other clever members of the excellent cast, matinees of "Buster Brown" will be given every afternoon this week save, perhaps, Monday and Wednesday.

CRITERION THEATRE (Ben M. Giroux, business manager).—"At Cripple Creek" opens for the customary week of two daily performances Sunday afternoon, "The Flaming Arrow" being booked to follow next Sunday afternoon. The rush to see the new attraction, "The Wayward Son," ending Saturday night, 19, business was good and the play gave satisfaction to the Criterion's loyal devotees of melodramatic sensations and tense situations.

ALHAMBRA THEATRE (James H. Browne, business manager).—"The Wayward Son" moves down to this South side temple of strenuous Sunday afternoon, beginning a week's engagement. Florence L. Johnson and Nell Twomey display their talents in the leading roles. Annie Blanche added further laurels to her record of success during last week's presentations of "A Little Outcast." Next week, "Too Proud to Beg."

COLUMBIAN THEATRE (Weber Bros., managers).—"The last week of "A Friend of the Family," ending 19, with "A Friend of the Family," "Out of the Fold" is the attraction opening for a week Sunday afternoon, 21. Norma Hyatt and Joseph Manning are the leading players. Next week, "Hello, Bill!"

BROADWAY THEATRE (Wm. R. Brown, business manager).—Annie Blanche starts her third consecutive Chicago week Sunday afternoon, 21, to appear twice a day in "A Little Outcast." The season opened here, week ending 19, with Geo. Kilham, in the title role, and the following: "The Bridge at Midnight." Next week, "At Cripple Creek."

COLISEUM GARDENS (Stewart Spalding, manager).—Brooke and his Chicago Marine Band, every night and Sunday afternoon, are the regular attraction. The season will last a few weeks longer, although no announcement of its termination is yet made.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE (Kohl & Castle, managers).—With the Four Mortons as top liners, Oron and Herbert with their charming quartet, Morrisey and Rich, and the witty comedy: John and Nellie McCarthy, doing a good act, and Thereso Dorgeval, presenting a most artistic singing number, this house had one of the best bills Chicago has lately seen. Business was fine, and the house was up to the legal limit all the time. Opening Monday afternoon, 22: Williams and Jordan, Chas. Gloss and son, Charlotte Ravenscroft, Nat Gill, Mrs. Jules Levy and company, J. W. Sherry, Kelson and Sterling, the Esma-Raid Sisters, and the new comedy, "The Italian Trifle." Mitchell and Love, Valerie Berge and company, Lew Sully, Barney Fagan and Henrietta Byron, and Geo. K. Spoor's kinodrome.

LEVELAND'S THEATRE (Wm. S. Cleveland, manager).—"The last week of "The Wayward Son" is successful second visit to this theatre begins Sunday afternoon, 21. Norma Hyatt and Joseph Manning are the leading players. Next week, "Hello, Bill!"

her of the aggregation, can do almost everything but talk. The Isabella Musical Quartet, Professor Barney, expansionist, and Ham Hur, the monster snake, are some of the many curios listed for current week. Stage: Kitty Hoffman, Leona Hanson, Anna Dixon, John Davis, the Hillmans, Eddy and Barney Flynn, Wench and the Eccentric Duo, Walter Dine, Wench and the Eccentric Duo, Walter Dine and Drake, Turrell and Weston, Dargun and Derby, Salzo and Hortas, and Burton and Curtis.

NICKLEBOON (L. B. Watson, manager).—The Patriotic Girls' made a favorable impression last week, and are retained for the current week. They introduce this week a new programme of patriotic and popular songs. Other acts: The Dexters, wonder workers; John Taylor, champion bag puncher; and usual weekly contest between a heavy of pretty girls. Theatre: Princess Madeline, Donna Deane, Bessie Rene, Harris and Holt, Weston and French, and others.

POINT OF PINES (Wm. H. O'Neill, manager).—This is a gala week at this resort, as many special features have been engaged. Thursday, the "Lynn Merchants' Day," with the merchants of Lynn will entertain their friends. Friday His Majesty's Grenadier Guards Band will make its first American appearance at this park and will give two concerts only, as it leaves the following day for the St. Louis Exposition. Owing to the unfavorable weather of last Saturday the head-on collision between two locomotives was postponed until Saturday of this week. Sunday concert bill included: John Mason & Co., Leona Hanson, Electric Comedy Four, Theaters, Dixon and James, Milton and Murke, and Emerson and Omega. "ESSENTIAL GARDENS" (Wm. H. O'Neill, manager).—This week: Electric Comedy Four, Harvey, Four Military Girls, Delberg Sisters, Four Shannons, and James Francis Dooley.

NORUMBEGA PARK (Carl Alberte, manager).—The "Gibson Girl," the farce comedy which has been played with much success at the many local parks, is the attraction at this open air theatre for current week. "LEXINGTON PARK" (J. W. Gorman, manager).—Alline and his trained monkeys, the Burrows, Charles Edwards, Hoyt and Burke, and the komograph are announced for week of Aug. 22.

MEMPHIS BOULEVARD THEATRE (J. W. Gorman, manager).—Current bill: Kelly's Zoum, Gardner and Maddera, Charles Colby, Klein, Ott Brothers and Nickerson, E. E. Nickerson, Cooper and Robinson, the Morse Brothers, and the komograph.

STAGE MATTERS.—E. H. Sothern was in town last week, for a day. McIntyre and Heath are booked for the Howard the week of Sept. 5. It is said Clara Lane will join Henry W. Savage's Opera Company and no longer star with James K. Murray. Shonans E. and begins his season in Bangor, Me., on Aug. 29.

Among recent engagements made by Henry W. Savage were Gertrude Clark, for the Turtle Dove, in "Woodland," and Dan Collier, for Matty McGowan, in "The College Widow." Sadie Emmons, of "Wizard of Oz" Co., is spending her summer vacation in Roxbury with her folks. Maud Thornton, of the Thornton Sisters, the well known vaudeville team, who was in the Worcester trolley car accident a few weeks ago, is still at the Stratford Hotel, but hopes to be out in a few weeks. As a result of the accident Miss Thornton had her collar bone broken and leg amputated, but despite her condition she is cheerful and wishes to thank her professional friends through THE CLIPPER for kindness shown in many ways. Last season Miss Thornton was a member of the Howard Stock, and had this season signed with the Ward & Vokes Co. The name of the Columbia Theatre is to be changed to the Gaiety Theatre and is to be reopened in 1900.

Under the management of Harry N. Farron. The policy will be to present musical comedies and high class burlesques by a stock company, at popular prices. A syndicate of Boston men has been formed for the purpose of the contract of the Shuberts for a number of years. It is probable that the opening attraction will be a three act musical comedy by two Boston authors. Among the many reunions in this city last week none was more interesting than the first meeting in fifty years of Don Worcester, a member of a Vermont G. A. R. post, and Professor Hutchins, the famous lecturer at Austin & Stone's Museum. Both were members of one of the first "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Cos. Worcester playing the part of Uncle Tom, while the professor essayed the role of Augustine Sinclair. Both are now over seventy years old.

Fall River.—The Academy of Music (Cahn & Grant, managers) opened its new season Aug. 19, with "Eight Belles" to good houses. Specialties by Harry E. Baker, Bachelor Sisters, Francis Le Page, and Byrne Brothers were all well received. The house has undergone a thorough overhauling and renovating. There are added facilities for getting on in case of fire, and other urgent need and the five added exits are so arranged as to be entirely distinct from the old exits. The house has been newly carpeted throughout. The dressing rooms have been all newly painted and one additional dressing room has been provided. A new comfort for men patrons is a smoking room. An electric sign, bearing the name, Academy, is suspended over the front of the house. The home staff includes: W. Fred Mason, manager; George S. Wiley, treasurer; William H. H. Grant, stage manager; Edward A. Tobin, leader of orchestra; Edward A. Mosher, head usher; John E. Garvey, advertising agent; and Wm. D. Page, porter. Booked: "Woodland" 23, "Shore Acres" Sept. 2, 3.

BLUO THEATRE (Lowell Mason, manager).—Bright and shining with new decorations and a beautiful lobby, this theatre opened its doors Aug. 15. "The Factory Girl," 15-20, opened an instantaneous success. Good sized audiences were delighted. Coming: "The Waifs' Paradise" 22-24, "Circus Day" 25-27.

SHEEDY'S THEATRE (M. F. O'Brien, manager).—This house opened its regular vaudeville season Aug. 15, to good business. Booked: "The Waifs' Paradise" 22-24, "Circus Day" 25-27, "The Waifs' Paradise" 22-24, "Circus Day" 25-27.

MENTION.—On the opening night of the Academy, Aug. 19, W. Fred Mason, resident manager, was presented with a handsome floral horseshoe. Through the courtesy of Shedy and O'Brien's moving pictures, talent from Shedy's Theatre, will participate in the Sunday concert Aug. 21, at the Fall River theatre, tendered by Myers and Blaney.

Springfield.—At the Court Square Theatre (W. C. Le Nolt, manager) Payton's Brooklyn Stock Co. put on a fine line of plays, including: "The Henrietta," "The Christian," and "Shenandoah," all of which drew well. Etta Reed, Harry W. Roche, Leona Hall, Lottie Sterrett, Lottie Wade and Florence Clear all did well. Rado and Bertman furnished the specialty. The house company 22-27.

NELSON THEATRE (Z. T. Damon, manager).—The Guy Brothers' Minstrels appeared under the auspices of the Springfield Academy of Eagles, 18, and created a favorable impression before a good sized house.

CLIPINGS.—Frank J. Woods, who has been visiting his brother in Holyoke, left to join the Southern "Human Hearts," 18. Leona, bicycle rider, is at Pequot Park, Westfield, this week. Richard O'Brien is soon to appear on the Keith circuit, in a new sketch. The Weber Brothers are to be with the Emmett-Mayo Repertory Co., Eddie Cartier, of this city, is to be with Gus

Y., and John, Jr., will begin in Los Angeles, Cal., James P. Maloney, a local member of the Elks, died last week.

Hoboken.—At the Lyric (H. P. Soulier, manager) A. H. Wood's new play, "Dealers in White Women," opened a four days' stay Aug. 14. On the opening night the house was crowded to the capacity and business continued fine while the play remained here. The work is in four acts and was written by Martin Harley (Ed. Rose). There are splendid electrical effects by Jos. Menchen, and beautiful scenic sets by Chas. H. Yale. It employs a large cast, and as a melodrama of the new school gave immense satisfaction. The hero is a reformed cracksmen, and the villain a Hindoo doctor. The story concerns the kidnapping of young girls and disposing of them to expectant buyers, a fad alleged to prevail in the great metropolis to an alarming extent. Frank Whitman, who now essays the role of the Hindoo, will close 20, and the Walters will take his place. "Princess Chic" 18-20, Lottie Williams, in "Only a Shop Girl," 21-24, "The Peddler" 25-27, "After Midnight" 28-31.

Wright. All of the people for week of will hold over, with the exception of Leonis.

MENTION.—Barnum & Bailey's Show co

23, afternoon and evening. Jacob Hoffman, a St. Paul balloonist, was drowned in Lake Alice, Fergus Falls, Minn., at six o'clock, 18. He made a balloon ascension and on coming down in the parachute fell into the lake. He became entangled in the weeds and drowned before assistance could reach him in the sight of a few people. Hoffman was employed by the Cash & Arnold Co., and was making balloon ascensions at Fergus Falls during the street fair being held there. He formerly resided in New York, but for the last six years had made his headquarters in this city. He was forty-six years of age. . . . The grounds at Hamline, this city, week of 29. [Telegraphic reports state that on Saturday night, 20, the Empire and the Tivoli Theaters were damaged by a tornado. ED. CLIPPER.]

Honston.—At the Standard Theatre (David & Lussner, managers) business, Aug. 15-20, culminated last evening. The week also saw a splendid offering as a curtain raiser, in "Royal Amours," a burlesque production full of fun. The following performers made up the programme 15-20: Birdie Varnell, Madeline La Verne, Mabel C. Wright, Frank P. Baldwin, Marie Dockman, Ernest Bailey, Tom Kelly, Grace Lester Russell, Allie Farron, Cleo Samways, Lee and Rose Edwards, Francis, and the musical comedy company, consisting of Edna, Etta Howard, Pearl Gilmore, Lillie White, Jessie Woods, Runtun, Edna Morris and Baker and Fonda.

NOTES. The Empire Theatre will be known as the Grand hereafter. Will R. Wilson, promoter of the new theatre, is the new owner and manager of the house last season, is the manager of the Wilson and Waterman Co. limited, a corporation that has leased the Empire Theatre here for the next eight years, and a dramatic stock. Wilson Waterman has also secured the Empire Opera House, in San Antonio and will also play a stock there, and will also play a stock in New Orleans with the Houston company. The corporation intends later on to add to its circuit in Texas. It has invested in New Orleans in the theatre owned by the Houston part of the stock company's circuit. The San Antonio Opera House will be opened soon in "The Belle of Richmond," and the Grand, at Houston, in "The Rose Tree." Manager Michaels, the persevering and energetic manager of Sweeney & Coomb's Opera House, is putting forth all his ability to make the new theatre a success for the attractions booked for September. The work at Sweeney & Coomb's Opera House is going along with great rapidity.

Ft. Worth.—At Greenwall's Opera House (Phil W. Greenwall, manager) the preliminary season opens Aug. 22, with the Albert Taylor Stock Co., for one week.

STANDARD THEATRE (Frank De Beque, manager).—Tom Foy's drama, "Black Hob," was the opening act week of 15. Virginia Hayden held over, and caused a sensation with her baritone voice. The other people: Holland and May, Phillips and Gordon, Virginia Rankin, Agnes La Porte, Carl Copeland, Lulu Mar, Josie Lawrence, and the Lee. Tom Foy, Lawrence and Lettie Colton. The biograph pictures close the show. The S. R. O. slip was out at the opening.

CROWN THEATRE (Phil Epstein, manager). — Copeland and Copeland, in their comedy, "A Vaudeville Rehearsal," as a curtain raiser, week of 15, and in the olio presented "McGoogle and the Kid." Marguerite Burkhart opened and scored a success with her specialty, "Ikey Goldstein." Others: Clark and Emmmons, Louise Byrd, Barney Williams, Ida Carrico, Ethel Russell, Luce and Luce, Ada Yule and Saul Harris. Business continues to capacity.

San Antonio.—Week of Aug. 8 the Orpheum had the following: The Three Lucifers, Emilie Lea, Geo. W. Evans, J. Van Wie, Baby Owen, Owen, Owen and Owen, moving pictures. Attendance was very good.

NOTE.—Sid Wells, manager of the Grand

Opera House, has returned from his trip North, looking very well. While away he booked an unusually good line of attractions for the season, which will open Aug. 28, with Albert Taylor's Stock Co. The Grand has been overhauled and now presents a beautiful view in the interior. The exterior is very attractive, and has new electric lights in front of the house.

Galveston.—The Crown Theatre (Jake Coy, business manager) was formerly known as the Mascot Theatre. It has been thoroughly renovated, and presents a cozy appearance. A crowded and enthusiastic audience witnessed the opening performance, Aug. 15, with the following performers on hand: Jas. Thompson, Elsie Russell, Dan Randall, Jessie Randall, Si Holt, Luderine Gurth, Rose B. Mitchell, Lizzie Mitchell, Beulah De Mon, Daisy Gordon, Lillie Ellsworth, Kittie Ray, May Gates, Della Davis and Ada Ray. The stock played a laughable comedy, called "Mixed Pickles."

JAMES BENSLEY, a well known gymnast died Sunday, Aug. 7, at Belleville, Can. He was born about sixty four years ago, in the Province of Ontario, Can., and began his career as a circus performer in 1865, he and his partner being known as the Bensley Bros. He was a trapeze and horizontal bar performer. They toured that year with L. B. Lent's Circus after which Mr. Bensley played successfully with the following old and well known shows: Wheeler's, Geo. F. Bailey's, Washington's, J. H. H. Murray, and Hoyt's. He was in 1877 his last and best season.

a unique and novel act, which kept them in feature in vaudeville until he joined the Adam Forepaugh Shows, Barnum & Bailey's Roberts & Gardner, Howe's London, Rogers and Gollmar Bros. & Downie. Recently he played parks and leading vaudeville houses until he was stricken with diabetes, which caused his death. His wife, a son, two brothers and a sister survive him. Interment was in Belleville, Can., Aug. 9.

WILHELM HOCK, who was an operati stage manager in this country some years ago, died Aug. 11, in Berlin, Germany. He was brought to this country first in 1833 by Dr. Leopold Damrosch and E. M. Stanton, as stage manager for the first season of German opera at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. Later he joined Mrs. Jeanette Thurber in her efforts to found an English opera company. He was later the manager of various theatres in Germany and in recent years conducted a dramatic

THE BODY OF MABEL FRETZ, an actress who was well known in Philadelphia, was found in the Delaware River at Frenchtown, N. J., on Aug. 17. She had gone out on the river Aug. 15 for a row, and the boat capsized.

WM. J. FRANZ, a performer with Chas. I. Franz's Modern Vaudeville Co., was instantly killed Aug. 9, at Cleveland, O. While he and his brother, Chas. H., were moving the show to the depot, a street car struck the hind wheel of the wagon, throwing William under

A storm, and evening. . . . Jacob Hoffman, a St. Paul ballroomist, was drowned in Alice, Fergus Falls, Minn., at six o'clock, 18. He made a balloon ascension, and on coming down in the parachute fell into the lake. He became entangled in the ropes, and before assistance could reach him in the sight of hundreds of people. Hoffman was employed by the Cash Carnival Co., and was making balloon ascensions at Fergus Falls during the street festival conducted there last week. New York, but for the last six years had made his headquarters in this city. He is forty-six years old. . . . The Minnesota state fair will be held on the grounds at Annette, this city, week of Aug. 17. [Telegraph.]

The Grand Opera House, Saturday night, 190, was wrecked by a tornado. Ed. CLIPPER.

TEXAS.

Houston.—At the Standard Theatre (Livido & Lasserre, managers) business, Aug. 16. The company, which has been here, took also saw a splendid offering as a curtain raiser, in "Royal Amours," a burlesque production full of fun. The following performers made up the programme 15-20: Birdie Carmell, Madeline La Verne, Isabel C. Wright, Harry Lane, Sam Dackman, Ernest Lamelle, Tom Kelly, Grace Lester Russell, Jack Farron, Cleo Samayoa, Lee and Rose Edwards, Francis, Howard and Francis, Shaddock and La Rose, Etta Howard, Pearl Gilmore, Leslie O'Neil, Maudie Mackin, Johnnie and Baker and Fondas.

NOTES.—The Empire Theatre will be known as the Grand hereafter. Will R. Wilson, promoter of the Elysium Theatre, New Orleans and manager of the house last season, is the proprietor. It was formerly owned by J. H. Williams, a corporation that has leased the Empire Theatre here for the purpose of putting in a dramatic stock. Wilson Waterman have also secured the Empire Opera House, San Antonio, and will again play a stock company of comedies about every two weeks with the Houston company. The corporation intends later on to add to its circuit in Texas. It has invested in New Orleans in theatrical property, which is to be partly the stock company's home. The Grand, Antonio, Tex. House will be opened soon in "The Belle of Richmond," and the Grand, at Houston, Sept. 5, with Rose Mayo Stock Co. . . . Manager Michaels, the persevering and energetic manager of Sweeney's, is planning to open a new theatre here, his abilities to get the Auditorium in shape for the attractions booked for September. The work at Sweeney & Comb's Opera House going along with great rapidity.

Pt. Worth.—At Greenwald's Opera House (H. W. Greenwald, manager) the preliminary season opens Aug. 22, with the Albert Taylor Stock Co. for one week.

Lake Erie Park and Pavilion (C. A. Lake Erie, manager).—Sylvan and O'Neal, in "I'll Play the Gallery," and Chas. Huey, in "The Song of Songs," week of 15. Business continues satisfactory.

STANDARD THEATRE (Frank De Beque, manager).—Tom Foy's drama, "Black Bob," was opening act week of 15. Virginia Hayden, Edith, and Cora, were singing forth all the time. The other people: Holland and May, Phillips and Gordon, Virginia Randall, Agnes La Porte, Carl Copeland, Lulu Deary, Josie Wise, Baby Dot, Jessie Lee, Tommy, Lulu Lawton, and Lettie Colton. The program picture will close the show. The S. R. sign was out at the opening.

CROWN THEATRE (Phil Epstein, manager).—Copeland and Copeland, in their comedy, "A Vaudeville Rehearsal," as a curtain raiser, week of 15, and the solo presented "The Google and the Kid." Marguerite Burkhardt opened and scored a success with her specialty, "Key Goldstein." Others: Clark and Simmons, Louise Byrd, Barney Williams, Idaricco, Ethel Russell, Luce and Luce, Adelaide and Saul Harris. Business continues to satisfy.

San Antonio.—Opening of Aug. 8 the Orpheum had the following: The Three Lucys, Emilie Lea, Geo. W. Evans, J. Van Wies, and others. The week of 15 moving pictures. Attendance was very good.

NOTE.—Sid Weiss, manager of the Grand Opera House, has returned from his trip north, looking very well. While away he looked an unusually good line of attraction, and Sid Weiss, who is now managing the Albert Taylor's Stock Co. The Grand has been overhauled and now presents a beautiful view in the interior. The exterior is very attractive, and has new electric lights in front of the house.

Galveston.—The Crown Theatre (Jack Toy, business manager) was formerly known as the Mascot Theatre. It has been thoroughly renovated, and presents a cozy appearance. A crowded and enthusiastic audience witnessed the opening performance Aug. 15, with the following performers abroad: Jas. Thompson, Elsie Russell, Dan Randall, Jessie Randall, Sil Holt, Luderlin Gurth, Rose B. Mitchell, Lizzie Mitchell, Leah de Mon, Daisy Gordon, Little Ellsworth and Ray. The stock played a laughable comedy called "Mixed Pickles."

DEATHS IN THE PROFESSION.

JAMES BENSLY, a well known symphonist died Sunday Aug. 11 at Belleville, Can. He was born about sixty four years ago, in the Province of Ontario, Can., and began his career as a circus performer in 1865, he and his partner being known as the Bensley Bros. Trapeze and horizontal bar performers. They were married in 1877, and had a son, Fred, after which Mr. Bensley played successfully with the following old and well known shows: Wheeler's, Geo. E. Balfe Washburn's, John H. Murray, and Roy & Co. In 1887 he introduced his own unique and novel act, which kept them feature in vaudeville until he joined the Adam Forepaugh Shows, Barnum & Bailey Roberts & Gardner, Howe's London, Roger and Gollmar Bros., & Downe's. Recently he was stricken with diabetes, which caused his death. His wife, a son, two brothers and a sister survive him. Interment was in Belleville, Can., Aug. 9.

FILTHELM HOCK, who was an operator stage, died Aug. 11, in Berlin, Germany. He was brought to this country first in 1871 by Dr. Leopold Damrosch and E. M. Stanton, as stage manager for the first season of German opera at the Metropolitan. He found work in New York, where he joined Jeanette Thurber in her efforts to found an English opera company. He was later the manager of various theatres in Germany and in recent years conducted a dramatic school in Berlin.

THE BODY OF MARIE FRETZ, an actress who was well known in Philadelphia, was found in the Delaware River at Frenchtown N.J., on Aug. 17. She had gone out on the river Aug. 15 for a row, and the body came ashore at Frenchtown.

WM. J. FRANZ, a performer with Chas. Franz's Modern Vaudeville Co., was instantly killed Aug. 9, at Cleveland, O. While he and his brother, Chas. H., were moving the show, the depot, a street car struck him while they were throwing William into the car. He was twenty-one years of age and had been in the profession five years. He is survived by his brother and five sisters. Interment was at Dayton, O., Aug. 12.

JACOB HOFFMAN, a ballroomist, was drowned in Lake Alice, Fergus Falls, Minn., Aug. 16.

WATCH FOR OUR BIG NOVELTY ANNOUNCEMENT NEXT WEEK.

He had made a balloon ascension, and on making a parachute leap he fell into the lake. FLORENCE HOWARD, of the vaudeville team Reynolds and Howard, died Aug. 21 at her home in Baltimore, Md. Her husband, James Reynolds, survives her.

Under the Cents.

NOTES FROM AL. F. WHEELER'S NEW MODEL SHOWS.—Business still keeps up to the top notch, and while we are not turning them away, the figures have been on the right side at every turn. Mr. Wheeler has added the past week a team of Mexican burros, also another beautiful spotted pony. Walter Phillips, solo cornettist; C. Coumont, trombone, and Jno. Provost, baritone, are late additions to our band. Our season will run into October.

ADVANCE DEPARTMENT PAWNEE BILL'S WILD WEST.—W. E. Ferguson, general agent; A. P. Scott, railroad contractor; H. Overton, contracting agent; S. P. Hetteberg, excursion agent; P. W. Harrell, manager advance car No. 2, with the following men: B. J. Leyden and V. Kincaid, banner men; R. Matthews, boss bill poster; W. Kittelwood, J. F. Bateman, M. L. Bell, M. Wisehart, W. Upham, H. Leslie, J. Jones, A. Lamont, P. Alken, L. Marsh, E. McNut, E. Baker, D. Moran, bill posters, and R. R. Vinder, chef. F. D. Van Osten, manager advance car No. 4; J. W. Nedrow, boss bill poster; H. Traxler, P. Church, E. Richards, S. Wesner, B. Cassell, S. Canby, A. Rockfellow, G. Humphries, E. Stockberger, bill posters; T. Corby and L. Hauser, banner men; J. Day, E. Hucher, E. Reckol and H. Knaut, lithographers, and R. W. Hamcock, route rider.

NOTES FROM CRANER'S NEW MODEL SHOWS.—Business is great. We are working North and Michigan. The people are clever, but the roads are bad—up one hill and down another. Nellie Whalen is doing fine in her coon shouting and comedy. Carl Elbridge, boss hostler, always has everything ready to start at 7 o'clock. Walter Elbridge is a performer who has something new in the joke line every day. Assistant manager Frank Willett is always on the spot waiting when the big show comes in. This country is so wild that we can't get hay or oats for the horses. Sometimes Master Russell gives exhibitions with his bucking pony each day before the doors open. Prof. George Owen has joined, and his act is simply great. He is getting ready to play dates on the circuits.

BOUNTING EDDY MARYKNE, tight rope dancer, reports doing nicely with John Robinson's Ten Big Shows.

NOTES FROM KNIGHT & SMITH'S CIRCUS.—We are now touring Indiana and Ohio, playing to packed and enthusiastic houses, return dates being asked for. The members of the company are all happy, and enjoying the best of health. Roster of company: C. H. Knight, manager; D. Smith, advertising agent; Autlie Sykes, Al. E. Spencer, J. Demario, Mr. and Mrs. La. Bert Moreland, Forest D. Snyder, Theron Fahl, G. Ed. Brown, J. W. Lawrence, Wallie Sykes, Thos. Linder, Dell Hicker, Joy Fahl, L. K. Bender, C. Fahl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaffer, Claude Lane, Carl Young, Clef. Methena, Call Small, F. M. Twitshell, Frank Rogers, Edgar Woods and Bert Russell. Knight & Smith carry a band of nine pieces, under the leadership of Theron Fahl. Knight & Smith contemplate taking the show South for a late fall business.

GEROME AND EDWARD, novelty equilibrists, joined the Reno & Alford Combined Shows Aug. 18. They write that their act was a big success. They go South for the winter.

NOTES FROM BERT SILVER'S ONE RING CIRCUS.—We have been out since May 10, having opened at our home, Standish, Mich., and have done a wonderful business all season, over half of the time we could not possibly get the people inside the canvas. Will close about Sept. 18, at home. Next year we will enlarge the show to twice the present size. We carry twenty-five people and twenty-three head of horses. Roster of show: The Silver Family of eight, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Silver, Frances, Laura, Earl, Pearl, Ruby and Dick, all play in band and orchestra, and do an act in the big show and concert; J. Dan Rice, with his eight Shetland ponies, three pigs and mule, in three great animal acts; Sandy Copeland, single traps and rings; Canfield and Von Horn, double traps and ladders; Vene Ives, singing comedian; Bert and Dick Silver, singing clowns; Earl Silver, juggling and wire; Ward Walker, Irish clown; Will Carnott, clarinet soloist; Chas. Perkins, musician; F. H. Monroe, trap drums; band and orchestra of ten pieces, Ed. Cross, advance. All are well. Have made very few changes since the show opened.

The Sisters Ty-Bell (Violetta and Edythe) are with the Ringling Brothers' Show, and report meeting with success in their specialty.

NOTES FROM DE MACK'S BIG SHOW.—We are now in our sixteenth week in the Indian Territory, and business has been good. We are due in the "cotton fields" in two weeks, and then everything will be lively. We close our Summer season at Collinsville, Ind. Ter., Oct. 15, and then we make a tour West through Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California, returning about May 10. Next season Mr. De Mack will put out a circus, and he is working hard now getting things in shape. We now have twelve people with the company, and everyone is enjoying the best of health. We look for this Old Reliable every week, and we generally get it. The gentleman in white makes his appearance every Saturday night, after the show.

NEWEST GREAT RAILROAD SHOW NOTES.—The State of New Jersey continues to contribute to our material happiness. Long Branch, Asbury Park and Tom's River gave us the usual high class business which we annually receive at these popular coast towns. During the week Aug. 15-20, in spite of muddy lots and heavy rains business at Bridgeton, Gloucester, Camden and Ardmore was good. In the town adjacent to Philadelphia we were favored with numerous visitors, including Richard Hemmings, the old time circus manager; J. Hoep, admat importer; Edw. Holder, of the McFarland & Holder Shows; Wm. Doris, side show manager; Bob Watt, the dramatic writer; Sam Harris and Percy Oldbottom, of the Hargreaves Circus, and Billy Angeroth, with members of Diamond Jack's Vaudeville Circus. Recent departures from the show comprise Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fables, George Glew, Frank Hobart, Charles Mitchell and Mrs. Chas. Robbins. Next week we go to Delaware and Maryland. Reports from these States say that the crops are very bountiful and business should be excellent. H. H. Whittier is still in advance, and Clinton Newton continues as general press agent. The Messrs. Welch have decided to continue their season until late in the Fall.

KILPATRICK BROTHERS' LOOP THE LOOP CO., featuring Diavolo, while giving a performance at Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 15, suffered considerable loss from a heavy storm which blew down the top; Harry Burns and Diavolo and wife were losers also. The loop and bicycle dangle were badly injured and a bicycle and bag punching apparatus damaged. A stadium was built and the performance started again 17, and has been playing to good business since.

Sgt. Honvati's midgets have been engaged for another year with the Brown & Bailey Circus, at an increased salary. These clever little people are creating a sensation at every performance.

FLETCHER SMITH has closed with the Brown & Reed Co. and is now in his fifth week with the Andrew Downie shows, making his fourth season ahead of that attraction.

WANTED AT ONCE, For Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., Man for General Business, Cornet B. and O., Tuba and Double Bass or Tuba and Piano, Trombone B. and O., and Colored Musicians. State age, height, weight and salary first letter. We pay board. Aus. GEO. PECK, Mgr., 214 W. 42d St., N. Y.

W. B. Watson will be seen in the leading roles is one of W. B. Watson's best skills entitled "Sandy Bottom." The olio: The Four Emperors of Music, Curtis and Adams, Athea Twin Sisters, Tony Wilson & Co. and Mile. Ammora, flying aerialist.

STAR—The Merry Maidens 22-27. The popular burlesque company is headed by Nellie Hanley, well liked in this style of work. A fine act is that of the Flying Bathmen. The vaudeville includes: Hyas, in an amusing act; the Vans, in a sketch; Sam Rice and Sheppard Camp, Patti Carney. The burlesques are "At the French Ball" and "In South Dakota."

MANHATTAN BEACH.—"Princess Chic" makes a bid for favor this week. The principals are: Caroline Bolen, Gus Vaughan, Jane Vander Zee, George C. Callahan, Dorothy Williams, Tom Smith Martin, Julia Kohles, and Lyman Wheeler. Shannon's Band gave two concerts at the theatre Sunday, which attracted a large crowd.

PAIN'S AMPHITHEATRE.—Pain has been hard at work on one of the largest set pieces ever given—"The Fall of Port Arthur." It will depict the fighting of the Japanese ships, sending out the scouts, blowing up of the cruisers, battleships and final destruction of the city and fortifications. It will be five hundred feet in length and will cause quite an alteration in the present structure at Manhattan beach. The set will be blown up by the use of dynamite and various descriptions, including the celebrated Russian battleship, which will be moored one mile off the beach.

BRIGHTON.—At the Music Hall (Wm. Grover, manager) Henry E. Dixie, in "David Garrick," appears as the headliner for the current week. Others are: Edna Aug. in "The Scrub Woman"; Rose Stahl, in "The Chorus"; and the celebrated comedians, Kelly and Ashby, in "Fun on a Billiard Table." Sidney Grant, Vera King, Gebest Sisters, and the vanguard.

DREAMLAND. (William H. Reynolds, president).—There are few changes in the present vaudeville bill. It includes Ross Hodges and Lauchner, Edie Brookline, Helene Gerard, Golden Gate Quartet, Renner and Gaudier, O'Donnell Brothers, and the Gordon Sisters, who have made a big success in their clever act. They are expected to stay for the rest of the season. The circus remains the same, with Dick Vrooman, M. V. Howard, Al. Seibert, J. Rooney, Mlle. Sigheer, and Howard and Luella.

LUNA PARK. (Thompson & Dundy, owners). The circus in the tri-rings is one of the main attractions in the industry. The programme this week is as follows: Josie Ashton, Mlle. Alexandrine, Louis De Mott, Gasmon and Tanko, Will Hill, Fve Flying Herberts, Kitman's Japanese Troupe, Kenner-Johnson and Lacey, Levant, Matsosia and Tanko, the Morris, Nazario, Nazario, Panzer Trio, Ostardo, Sig. Spessard, Belle Stone, Little Sateoita, Mons. Vinello, Zopki and Mario, the Zarnes, and Robt. Stickney Jr., in his clever work on his pony. Two thousand Mystic Shimmers had an act here last Wednesday. Since Thursday of last week 400,000 persons have seen the open air circus. A monkey has been substituted for the cat that loops the loop on roller skates. "War is Hell" has an addition this week.

HENDERSON'S MUSIC HALL. (F. B. Henderson, manager).—This week's bill: Pauline Wells and picks, Edwards and Rooney, Corinthus Four, Hathaway and Walton, Carmen Sisters, Zimmer, and Brittons. Hanson, Watson and Hills, The Sevons, Eight English Girls, Nina Collier, Milani Trio, Victor's Venetian Band, and Ethel Robinson.

AMPHION. (S. H. Cohen, manager).—Will open Oct. 1. During the summer months extensive alterations, including new exits, have been made.

BROADWAY. (Leo. Teller, manager).—Will open Aug. 27, with "The Sultan of Sulu," with Frank Moulan and Flo Irwin.

GAITY. (James Clark, manager).—The season here was begun on August 22, with the Rose Hill English Folly Co.

UNIQUE. (Frank Carr, manager).—Sam T. Jack's Burlesquers opened the season here night of 22. The story of the burlesque presented has to do with the life of a Cuban adventurer.

GOTHAM. (Charles Williams, manager).—Saturday, Sept. 3, will mark the beginning of the season here, with "Deserted At The Altar."

PAYTON'S. (W. Allen, manager).—Aug. 29 will see the opening here, with "The Henrietta."

NOTES.—Edgar F. Gerard, who has been located at Dreamland during the summer as stage director for the vaudeville show, returns and will direct the Orpheum, this fall. Manager Percy G. Williams of the Orpheum, has stated that the season just passed was the best financially in the history of the house. Another week will find every house in this borough open. The Montauk commences their season on Wednesday, at the Majestic, the last addition to Brooklyn's playhouses, will present "The Wizard of Oz," the Grand Opera House will have "Under Southern Skies," the Columbia, "Soldiers of Fortune," Park, "Eight for Love," and the Orpheum and Hyde & Behman's will present their vaudeville.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE.—The Star was the first of the local houses to open for the regular season, and judging from the crowds that attended the opening week, this popular burlesque house is due for another successful season. Weber & Rush's Dainty Duchess Co. was the opening attraction, and scored a big success. Both burlesques were complete, with good feature numbers and plenty of comedy. Bessie Clifford, the Engstrom Sisters, Ranzetta and De Laiz, Gray and Graham, James and Sadie Leonard, and Chas. Robinson made the opening, and all received enthusiastic applause. The Cherry Blossoms 21-27.

ACADEMY. (Edwin Thanhouse, manager).—Jim Bludso, week of 15, was well taken care of by Mr. Thanhouse's players, Mac Greenleaf, Albert Brown and Charlotte Perry carrying off the principal honors. "As You Like It" week of 22, and "Peck's Bad Boy" week of 29.

NOTES.—Charles F. Gates, who has been in the theatrical business at Houston and Galveston for the past five years, has returned to Milwaukee for this season. James Leonard, of the Dainty Duchess Co., suffered a severe wrench of his knee at the opening performance Sunday. Mr. Leonard resumed his place in the company on Wednesday, despite his leg being in bad shape. O. F. Miller will open his eighth season of the Alhambra 28, with "Out of the Fold." John R. Pierce will open the Bijou 28, with "Our New Minister." Sherman Brown will not open the Davidson until Sept. 5, when "Ben Hur" is to be presented. The Grand and Crystal are due to enter the field Aug. 28, with vaudeville bills.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis.—At English's Opera House (Ad. F. Miller, manager) Al. G. Field's Minstrels Aug. 29.

PARK THEATRE. (Dickson & Talbott, managers).—"The Wayward Son," 11-13, filled the house twice a day and made good. "The Heart of Chicago," 15-17, stood them up at every performance. "The Stain of Guilt," 18-20, "A Working Girl's Wrong," 22-24, "For His Brother's Crime," 25-27.

EMPIRE THEATRE. (Chas. Zimmerman, manager).—Bohemian Burlesquers week of 22. Sam Devere's Co. week of 29.

NOTES.—The unique opened to light last night 15, under the management of the Klitties will play at Fairbank week of 22.

.....The Indiana State Fair will feature several free vaudeville acts this year, Sept. 12-16. All is in readiness for the opening of the fifth season of modern vaudeville at the Grand Opera House 29. The house has been given a thorough renovating and repairing, which gives it a bright appearance. The executive staff will be almost the same as last season. Manager Ziegler has arrived from Saratoga and Press Representative Daley, who managed the "Humpty Dumpty" Spectacular Co. in 1910, during the Summer, has been in the city the past two weeks booming the opening.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans.—At the West End (J. J. Corcoran, manager) big crowds attended Aug. 14-20, and each number won well merited applause. Prof. Geo. Paolotti and his splendid concert band pleased as usual.

ATLANTIC PARK. (H. C. Fourton, manager).—Big business ruled 14-20, when the Walter Edwards Co. presented "David Garrick" in a most creditable manner. Mr. Edwards has proven the best card offered at the park this season. "Camille" 21 and week.

NOTES.—Major Tom Campbell, the hustling business manager of the Tulane and Chalmette Theatres, arrived in the city week of 14, accompanied by his charming wife. The major immediately resumed his duties. Stage Director H. Percy Meldon, of the Baldwin-Melville Stock Co., is expected here 22, with the company to follow about 26. Fred C. Schmidt, of the Hakejos Music Co., returned home 15, from the St. Louis Fair, where he has been enjoying his wedding tour.

J. V. McSte, the well known advance man, has been appointed advertising and press agent of the new Greenwood Theatre. Lamotte, Southern magician, has gone East, to prepare for his winter engagements. Another new summer park was opened Aug. 15 at Pascagoula, Miss. The park is situated on the Mississippi Sound, the heart of Mobile, Ala. The opening attraction was Willette, wizard, and his vaudeville company, including: Percy Cahill, Dominick Romeo, Ed. Fitzgerald, Ed. Lavelle, Francis Wilson, W. A. Koepke and Prof. L. J. Pico, musical director. A change of bill will be made weekly.

With the Bill Posters.

Notes from Local No. 17.—Bro. Harry Davis is in town in advance of the "Shogun." Manager Huston, of the "Heavenly Maryland," Harry Askin, of Ezra Kendall's Co., and Geo. H. Murray, of "The Silver Slipper." James Gammon, of the Palace Theatre, in addition to being the advertising agent, is to look out for the papers of Chas. Valdon's two road companies, the Trovatore Burlesques and the High Rollers. M. J. Wogan, advertising agent of the Hollis, Colonial and Park Theatres, has been re-engaged for this season. The three houses will bill as in the past season and will have their staffs. All members of this local, Ted Wehrle and Ned Curtin, of the steamer New Brunswick, had charge of the G. A. R. encampment visitors on their deep sea fishing excursion. Purser Wehrle is an experienced navigator and expert in deep sea fishing. Harry Pender, manager of "The Isle of Spice" Co. is to be the manager of the Detroit Opera House, and left here to open that house Sept. 5. John Ellis has sold his interest in his watermelon patch. James Orr is in town for a few days. He will go ahead of the "Quincy Adams Sawyer" Co. Bro. Carlyle has returned and thanks the Pittsburg local for their kindness to him on his last visit there. The regular season of the Boston Theatre will open Sept. 2, with "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the old staff having been re-engaged. Harry Pender is the advertising agent for the big food fair at Mechanics Building, which will open Oct. 3. Ed. Curtin, Frank Farren and Red Hogan have been engaged. Sandra Munro, and Ed. Hale, our treasurer, are at Haverhill Beach for a short stay, before joining Geo. Collier's staff at the Majestic. Ned Burke's large advertising wagon, with Coca Cola featured, was in the rear of the big parade Aug. 16, and attracted a large crowd. The new vaudeville in this city will be opened Sept. 5, Labor Day, for the regular season. Our next meeting will be Sunday, Aug. 28.

Notes from Barnum & Bailey Show, Advance Car No. 2. Al. Riel, manager, Richard Lafave, Local No. 6, have been designated at Minneapolis, Minn., to accept a position as stage carpenter with a large New York production, and it may be said in justice to Mr. Lafave that we were all sorry to see him go, and all wish him well. He is a very fine man, and a very good photographer. He is making more than good use of his position. He is a visitor on our car at St. Paul and all his friends were glad to see him. M. Breslau entertained several of his old friends on the car while at Minneapolis, and another old time circle of friends met on the Pacific coast, but who is now employed in St. Paul, is Tom Scanlon. The health of the men on this car has thus far been exceptionally good and good will and harmony prevail. We also have had very nice weather this season, with very few exceptions. Every man on this car is a union man and is abreast of the times, and knows what is expected of him by the "Greatest Show on Earth." Below find roster of car No. 2: Wm. Shea, boss bill poster; J. Nahlit, lithographer, Excursion men; Peter Bahr, Dennis Dilland, Harley White, W. Thebo, M. Coughlin, J. Leister and James Lyons. Programmers: Joe Smith, C. Curtice, W. Oliver, F. Batterson, T. Kavanagh, L. Kavanagh, Ed. Tice and G. Mice and G. Mice and G. Mice, the genial and popular excursion man, is contemplating taking a trip to Europe at the expiration of the present season. G. Morgan and J. Leister may go ahead of an "Uncle Tom" show this season. James Lyons is seriously thinking of putting out "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Joe Smith will devote his spare time next winter to a new business proposition.

Notes from Local No. 24, Buffalo, N. Y.—At our regular meeting, held Sunday, Aug. 14, at Swartz's Hall, there was a very large attendance. President Lynch was not able to attend, owing to illness. Bro. F. C. Taylor, financial secretary and business agent, resigned his office on account of leaving the city to go on the road. In his place Bro. Ben Taylor, Chas. Ferguson, and Geo. Riley, and Bro. Frank Rowe was elected business agent. Bro. Danny Lynch is at work at the Star, billing the opening attraction, "The Darkest Russia." The Lyceum opens with Joseph and others. Road members will kindly send their addresses to H. S. Parker, recording secretary, 94 Market Street, Newark, N. J.

Bert L. Russell writes: "Local No. 33, Brooklyn, has again changed its secretary, and I am to take the office."

Tom Corby and Walter Kettlewood, of Local No. 3, Pittsburg, have signed with "The King of the Cattle Ring" Co.

MATSUO'S ROYAL JAPANESE TROUPE, three women, two men and two children; the Hawaiian Troubadours, six in number, and the Korean magicians, Yung Ju Kim and Chikoke Oke, are under the management of James W. Price. The acts have been winning success playing Summer engagements.

WILLIAM MORRIS has returned to town from his trip to Canada, which was taken for the double purpose of business and pleasure. The agent in Canada was the Winnipeg Fair, which Mr. Morris and his wife attended only. He has greatly improved in health, and is again in harness at his office for the busy Fall and Winter season.

NEW! JUST PUBLISHED! "MY LITTLE WESTERN QUEEN"

A beautiful sentimental ballad of a daughter of the Western ranch, with a simple, yet beautiful and catchy waltz melody, by RALPH JARRETT. Sung while in MS. with tremendous success. An acquisition to any singer's repertoire. Prof. copies to performers sending late programme, no cards, FREE. Orchestration, 6c. for postage. REGULAR COPIES, 50c.

JARRETT-ANDERSON MUSIC CO., Publishers, SHENSTON, WEST VA.

Opening week isn't expected to be a buying week. Of course we much prefer to sell, but we're just as ready to show.

It isn't right for us to insult the quality and craftsmanship in our $20 suits and top coats by the figure at which you buy. Send for samples, measuring outfit and fashion cards.

McINNERNEY'S THEATRICAL GOLD CREAM.

There are many Cold Cream Preparations on the market today. Some are GOOD—others are BETTER—But McInnerney's is BEST. The ingredients of McInnerney's Cold Cream are pure and harmless, and when you once use this preparation you will want no other. Other good qualities in its favor are its delicate perfume, smooth whiteness and cooling properties. And it does not cost as much as many of the far inferior preparations.

SHE WAS FROM MISSOURI!

Words and . . .
Music by . . .
Theron C. Bennett.

ABSOLUTELY THE ONLY WORLD'S FAIR SONG HIT SOLD ON THE FAIR GROUNDS.
IT WILL BE A BIG "AD" FOR YOUR ACT OR SHOW IF YOU WILL USE IT.

HERE ARE THE WORDS:

FIRST VERSE.
A wise boy from Chicago who had lots of dough to spend,
Came down to old St. Louis just to see his lady friend;
They rode out to the Fair grounds, to see the wonders there,
He, in all his city wisdom, to see the maiden stare.

CHORUS.
Oh, she was from Missouri, and she had to see it all,
She worked the guy so smoothly he had nothing left at all;
For every show it took a plunk, for every beer
a dime,
And thus she worked Chicago for a good old jolly time.

SECOND VERSE.
He thought she'd be so simple he could twirl
her round his thumb,
But a sweet St. Louis Dimple means a barrel full of fun;
With one hand on his collar and the other on his thigh,
Miss St. Louis made Chicago pay well for every show.

IT WILL BE THE WALTZ SONG HIT OF THE SEASON.

Now being Featured by MIGNONETTE KOKIN and BELLE STEWART.

Hohner HARMONICAS

For the past fifty years have been universally recognized as being the BEST MADE, and are preferred by professionals everywhere, which is proven by the numerous unsolicited endorsements received from all parts of the world.

THE ORGANOLA

Is a splendid novelty to be used in vaudeville. It consists of a solo mouth organ, nearly chromatical, attached to two sets of reeds, controlled by a double row of valves, which render chords and bass notes, both minor and major. Has the same effect as a concertina. Instruction book goes with each instrument.

Hohner ACCORDIONS

Are made of the best materials which skill and years of experience can obtain, thoroughly seasoned wood, to stand any climate, the finest reeds, clear and resonant as a bell. "Just as good as the Hohner Harmonicas," is the best proof of their superior quality.

The "Hohner" instruments are endorsed by Wm.
H. Burke, the original harmonica wonder, who was the first to introduce this instrument and its possibilities upon the stage. During his professional career of the past 23 years he has continually used the "Hohner" Harmonicas.

"ALEXANDER."

The overwhelming success of "Good Bye, Elisa Jane," and "Hannah, Won't You Open that Door?" previous songs by HARRY VON TILZER and ANDREW B. STERLING, should be some indication of the encore earning quality of "ALEXANDER," particularly when we tell you that this is the featured coon song of the house. It is absolutely beyond controversy the greatest coon song that HARRY VON TILZER was ever identified with, and one that is already on the high road to immense popularity.

"LOUISA SCHMIDT."

Positively the greatest novelty production song that has ever been offered to the profession this season. Innumerable possibilities for dressing and staging. The big song hit of "PARIS BY NIGHT," at the Madison Square Roof Theatre, New York City. Ten to twelve encores at every show. By ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER.

"MY PRETTY LITTLE KICKAPOO."

Of the host of "Indian" songs just one stands pre-eminent—that is "MY PRETTY LITTLE KICKAPOO," by ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER. It will be a feature of many shows and single acts for the coming season. If you have any doubt about its availability, go and see it done—then you will use it.

"GONE!
GONE!
GONE!"

The rough coon song hit of the house. It is already a big favorite with users of this class of song. Its applause getting qualities are many, and can be safely featured in any repertoire. By T. J. FARRON and JOS. HOLLANDER.

"Maydee,"

(Pretty South Sea Island Lady)

This is a song that A. J. LAMB and HARRY VON TILZER successfully introduced some time ago. Can be used as a solo number or with effects. In any way it is full of great possibilities.

"The Yankee Doodle Girl."

ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER'S soubrette march song. On the same lines as their previous success, "Oh, the Lovely Girls," etc. Full of the same catchy jingle, and can be dressed.

"Under the Anheuser Bush"

Just a reminder that ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER'S great drinking song is still riding on the top wave of popularity. In a great many sections outside of the big cities this song can be used with profit to you.

"But I Was Dreaming."

ED. ROGERS winsome love song that a host of professionals are using with entirely satisfactory results.

"The Wedding of Barney and Bodelia."

Another Hibernian dirty, by ED. ROGERS, that is of a different style from the foregoing, but has a hundred and one points of usefulness of its own.

"Does You Love Me As You Used Miss Jane?"

Those looking for a sextette number on the same lines as "Flordora," will be very much interested in this little attractive ditty. DAN AVERY and CHRIS. SMITH wrote it. Can also be used as a solo.

"The Pansy and the Owl."

One of the best production numbers that we have ever issued. Especially good for light effects, and a song that stage managers can revel in. By HARRY NEWMAN and CHARLES ROBINSON.

"WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN (MAGGIE DEAR)"

In our previous ad. we made a claim that this was the greatest of a series of great songs of this type written by ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER, and the enormous demand for copies, together with resultant encores for the song, more than bear out our claim. Remember that this song is by the men who never wrote a failure. It has an appealing story and a beautiful melody. Brilliantly illustrated by THE STEREOPTICON FILM EXCHANGE. Slide users apply for terms.

"The Mountebank."

Our great big instrumental hit, a characteristic march intermezzo that no show leader can well afford to be without.

THE HARRY VON TILZER MusicPub.Co.

This is one of the greatest list of publications ever issued by any house anywhere, and our overwhelming success in the past, and the number of hits that you have had from us should guarantee that our claim is correct.

Whenever possible, come in and see us at our office. We want to keep in touch with you, and letters are never as satisfactory as a personal meeting where we can grasp your hand and extend to you all the courtesies of the house. Pick out what you need, and when you decide on what you can use, we will furnish you with orchestrations of the songs if you will let us know the keys.

Proof of professionalism required from those we do not know, and in all cases enclose ten cents for postage. Don't send letters to our Chicago Branch at No. 67 Clark Street, but

ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO 37 WEST 28th ST., N. Y. CITY.

"The Mountebank."

Positively a great bit of instrumental writing. Very effective for dumb or acrobatic acts of all descriptions.

"ALL ABOARD FOR DREAMLAND."

We presume that the name of this waltz song is fairly well known to you, but want to say that outside of the very largest cities you will find it well received by your audiences, particularly in the West and South. Written by ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER.

"DOWN WHERE THE SWEET POTATOES GROW."

ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER wrote this after a fashion that was popular years ago. It is now coming back into vogue again—namely, a song and dance such as Billy Emerson used to use. It has been tried out by a number of good people, and goes enormously well.

"DORA DELL."

A stirring story march song, by AL. BRYAN and HARRY VON TILZER, that has all the characteristics of a big hit. It has been tried out by a number of singers, and we have yet to hear that it is not going big. Appropriately illustrated by THE STEREOPTICON AND FILM EXCHANGE.

"MAGGIE RILEY."

The champion concoctors of successful waltz songs, ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER, have again struck a lucky inspiration in this novelty Irish waltz song. It is absolutely an innovation in popular music, and one that is taking with the public, bidding fair to be of national interest in a few weeks' time.

"DOWN AT THE BABY STORE."

A song that always makes "straight" singers secure in the affection of the public is one that tells an appealing story and has an appropriate and beautiful melody. AL. BRYAN and HARRY VON TILZER have one of that type in this song. It is superbly illustrated by the STEREOPTICON AND FILM EXCHANGE.

"EBENEZER BROWN."

We have had a great many professional calls for a march coon song, so ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER have produced this song to meet the demand. It is a knock out number for either opening or closing acts, or for staging.

"Celia."

A pretty coon serenade, by HARRY WELLMON, that moves very well with professional singers.

"The Man With the Dough."

A great straight comic song, by ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER, with a whole string of extra and topical verses. To be without it is to do yourself an injustice.

"Come On, Boys, Let's Follow the Band."

ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER'S "band songs" in the past have always caught on. This is another of the same kind, and will be equally popular.

"Down Where the Swanee River Flows"

The present rage in rustic song. Slides made by the STEREOPTICON FILM EXCHANGE always on hand. Written by ANDREW STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER.

"Hannah, Won't You Open That Door?"

Just a reminder of the great coon song success by ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER, and to ask if you have had the big list of extra and parody verses.

"Mazie,"

(My Georgia Lady From the Sunny South.)

Those who have seen the act of THE GLEASONS will recognize the title of this song, and will want it, as it is their big hit. Written by them and FRED HOULIHAN.

"My Bunch of Sweetness."

A very useful number, either singly or for production purposes. Written by AVERY and HART, who are performers, and know just what performers want.

LENSES FOR STEREOPTICON VIEWS

Standard 4-4 $32.00
Standard 2-3 $21.00
Standard 1-2 $14.50
Standard 1-3 $12.00
Standard 1-4 $7.00

There are so many objective lenses on the market that are merely apologies for what they ought to be that exhibitors of moving pictures and stereopticon views who are not optical experts frequently use second rate lenses, without knowing how much better work can be done with higher quality objectives. The above illustration shows the lenses which are recognized as standards, with prices for the best quality.

The one at the left has the shortest focus, and is therefore a short distance lens. From the left to the right the focus lengthens and the objectives are used at gradually increasing distances.

In order to obtain the best possible illumination on the curtain the distance between objectives should be larger; that is to say, the diameter of the lenses greater than the shorter distance.

The standard one-quarter size objective projects a stereopticon view whose size equals one-half the distance between instrument and curtain, and can be used at any distance up to fifty feet.

The standard one-third size objective projects a stereopticon view whose size equals four-tenths of the distance between instrument and curtain.

The standard one-half size objective projects a view whose size equals three-tenths of the distance between instrument and curtain.

The standard two-thirds objective projects a view whose size equals one-quarter of the distance between instrument and curtain.

The standard four-quarter size objective projects a view whose size equals one-fifth of the distance between instrument and curtain.

As the standard long focus objectives are expensive, the same focus is frequently put up in a smaller mounting, either one-quarter size or one-half size, which reduces the cost. When the four-quarter focus is put up in a one-quarter size mounting the illumination is greatly reduced; when put up in a one-half size mounting the results are fair when used with electric or lime light.

Moving picture lenses are of very short focus, and therefore put up in a mounting either one-quarter size or smaller.

In addition to these standard foci we have developed a series of objectives for further distances to answer every practical requirement. These project a picture whose size is proportion to distance between instrument and curtain is as one to six, one to seven, one to eight, one to nine, and one to ten. Our catalogue explains these matters in detail.

Our No. 500 dissolving stereopticon and No. 100 single lantern will take any of the standard objectives from the one-quarter size to the four-quarters.

We can equip Edison Kinetoscopes with long distance stereopticon objectives in the one-half size mounting, if the lenses that accompany the instruments project too large a picture at long distances.

Besides the above New Song Hits the Dockstader Minstrels are again featuring those two Wonderful Ballad Successes, "YOU'RE AS WELCOME AS THE FLOWERS IN MAY" and "WHERE THE SUNSET TURNS THE OCEAN'S BLUE TO GOLD." Also "Turn Those Eyes Away," "When the Lights Are Low," "Song the Anvil Sings."

BIG INDIAN CHIEF

SAVE IT FOR ME

CONGO LOVE SONG

LAZY MOON

COLE AND JOHNSON'S New Sensational Song Hit, "FISHING," sung by Fay Templeton, at the Aerial Gardens, will soon be released. Watch out for it. The best thing you ever heard.

This is the wonder
"Chime" song
they're all talking about.

Funny beyond description. It is creating a veritable sensation, and looks like another
"Oh, Didn't He Ramble," hit.

Oh, my, what a hit! The greatest coon shout ever written. Sung by Lew Dockstader himself. Ten encores nightly. Get in on this quick. Chris. Smith and John Larkins created this song, and they're proud of it.

Vocal arrangement of the stunning sarch you hear played everywhere.
Great for all kinds of acts. Dancing, singing, dumb, etc., etc.

A tripping little, skipping little waltz number. Fresh and delightful as a June bird. The best waltz song of the season.

A popular ballad by two popular writers, Max S.
Witt and Chas. Horwitz.
The result must be a hit.

Stirring march song.
One of the real features of the Lew Dockstader Show.

A bigger hit than ever. Laughs from start to finish.

Beautiful ballad by the writer of that famous success, "Maybe." This one will outshine "Maybe."

Song of mother and home. Pathetic, melodious, catchy.

They may tell you about great Indian songs, but there's only one real hit, Cole and Johnson's
"BIG INDIAN CHIEF."

Everybody is inquiring about this one. Fay Templeton started it a-rolling, and they're all after it now. Send for "SAVE IT FOR ME" without fail.

The real—the beautiful—
the inimitable "Congo Love Song." Now released. You can't afford to be without it.

Cole and Johnson's "moon" songs are world famous. This moon song puts a fitting climax to the series. Geo. Primrose says it's the best song he ever used in his act.
